A Message from Father Tim

Dear Friends,

262 students have completed their First Reconciliation this year. We had some celebrations in Advent and we concluded in January. It was very touching to see so many families prepare their children to encounter the forgiveness of God. The children were well prepared (a bit scared) and they came forward with confidence. The forgiveness of God is a wonderful gift. This Sacrament can help us all to know the love and acceptance from God more deeply. Continue to celebrate this Sacrament on a regular basis. If you have not been to confession in a while, please consider it. Lent will be here in a few weeks and it would be a good resolution to make.

We have a second collection today for the people of Haiti. They are suffering so much with loss, hunger, and survival. Part of the collection will go to Catholic Relief Services. I am aware that the funds we give to them will be used prudently in Haiti. We have a link on our website for Catholic Relief Services if you wish to find out more about this organization or to donate online. Another recipient will be the "Friends of the Orphans." Youth from Holy Name go and visit the orphanage of "Nuestros Pequeños Hermanos" each summer to provide them a vacation bible school experience. The organization also has an orphanage in Haiti and our donations will go directly to them. They assure us they will use the funds for the children. Let us continue to pray for them.

Peace,

Fr. Tim Morin

A Prayer After the Earthquake in Haiti

Lord, at times such as this,
when we realize that the ground beneath our feet
is not as solid as we had imagined,
we plead for your mercy.

As the things we have built crumble about us,
we know too well how small we truly are
on this ever-changing, ever-moving,
fragile planet we call home.
Yet you have promised never to forget us.

Do not forget us now.

Today, so many people are afraid.
They wait in fear of the next tremor.
They hear the cries of the injured amid the rubble.
They roam the streets in shock at what they see.
And they fill the dusty air with wails of grief
and the names of missing dead.

Comfort them, Lord, in this disaster.
Be their rock when the earth refuses to stand still,
and shelter them under your wings
when homes no longer exist.
Embrace in your arms those who died so suddenly this day.
Console the hearts of those who mourn,
and ease the pain of bodies on the brink of death.

Pierce, too, our hearts with compassion,
we who watch from afar,
as the poorest on this side of the earth
find only misery upon misery.

Move us to act swiftly this day,
to give generously every day,
to work for justice always,
and to pray unceasingly for those without hope.

And once the shaking has ceased,
the images of destruction have stopped filling the news,
and our thoughts return to life's daily rumblings,
let us not forget that we are all your children
and they, our brothers and sisters.
We are all the work of your hands.

For though the mountains leave their place
and the hills be tossed to the ground,
your love shall never leave us,
and your promise of peace will never be shaken.

Our help is in the name of the Lord,
who made heaven and earth.
Blessed be the name of the Lord,
now and forever. Amen.

Scripture of the Week

"Today this scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." Luke 4: 21

Jesus was making a simple statement of truth, but an enormous statement to the ears of His listeners. Jesus was telling the people, who were expecting a royal king, that He was the person God sent to redeem the world. Jesus also uses scripture to show us how to follow Him in helping the world. We may not appear to be anyone special, but God can use us for great things.

Job Transition Group

February 4, 2010 — 7:00-9:00 p.m.

The Holy Name of Jesus Job Transition Group meets the first Thursday of every month from 7:00-9:00 p.m. at Holy Name of Jesus. Our purpose is to support people in job transition with group discussion, job sharing ideas, through our data base of contacts and job listings, and through topics relevant to your efforts. It is an intimate group, with positive energy, helping one another, and providing information from the field. Please join us whether in transition, or because you've been through job transitions and want to be of service to others now seeking new positions.

Meeting Topic: What will the rise in "Situational Employment" mean for your career? How will your personal brand matter with Situational Employment?

Recent global research from the Manpower Group of Companies with over 41,000 employers in 35 countries reveals changing attitudes and trends on the role of contingent workers in workforce strategy among organizations. In the Americas region, employers here, more than any other region consider non-permanent works as being key to workforce strategy. Fully 14% of employers across the globe now turn to contingent employees for more strategic reasons—to try out candidates prior to hiring for permanent positions, to provide longer-term flexibility, to quickly find talented people possessing specialized skills, and to outsource non-core business functions. In this conversation, we will review the trends and talk about what this means for your career.

Speaker: Susan Grant Palombo is Senior Vice President, Client Services with Right Management and serves as a key relationship manager for accounts in the Minnesota, North and South Dakota marketplace. Right Management is the career and talent management expert within the Manpower, the global leader in employment services.

In her role at Right Management, Susan helps clients solve business opportunities by providing access to Right Management's subject matter experts within the Minneapolis office and around the globe. Right Management's 300 offices in 52 countries provide both breadth and depth in terms of best practices and innovative thought leadership on almost any human capital issue. Susan has worked in large account management in the consulting industry for over 25 years with a concentration in the financial services industry.

Prior to joining Right, Susan served as Vice President, Consulting Services for a global employee and customer measurement firm. She had responsibility for the firm's consulting products and services, presentation of research results and implications, sales and marketing and client relationship management. Prior to that, Susan owned a strategic marketing and advertising firm and prior to that, served as a senior relationship manager with a global advertising agency.

A Thank You From Interfaith Outreach & Community Partners

Dear Father Tim,

Thank you so much for your gifts of food throughout the year and this Holiday Season to the Interfaith Outreach & Community Partners Food Shelf. We are truly grateful to you and the members of Holy Name of Jesus Church for your generous support of the food shelf.

In recent months, IOCP has witnessed an increased reliance on the food shelf by many of the working poor in our community. In fact, we are now distributing more the 62,000 pounds of food a month. We are particularly indebted to you for providing support to insure that food will always be available to families who need it in our community.

Please extend our heartfelt thanks to your entire congregation for your ongoing support.

Sincerely,
LaDonna Hoy, Executive Director
Interfaith Outreach & Community Partners
