Fiducia Supplicans Document

By Fr. Tim Wratkowski

On Dec. 18, 2023, the Vatican issued a Declaration, signed by Pope Francis, "On the pastoral Meaning of Blessings." The document, entitled Fiducia Supplicans (FS), reflects on the various forms and purposes of blessings. Part of the document speaks about offering blessings to people who are living outside the way of life commanded by Jesus, including those in irregular marriages and same-sex unions. On Jan. 4, 2024, the Vatican issued a clarification to FS. I would encourage you to read both documents, which are available online.

FS begins by stating that it is not changing the Church's teaching on marriage, reminding us that marriage is the "exclusive, stable, and indissoluble union between a man and a woman, naturally open to the generation of children" (FS, 4). It goes on to say that this teaching is "perennial" and "firm" (FS, 4) because this teaching is rooted in the Gospel as given to us by Jesus (FS, 5). Thus, it is only within the context of the Church's doctrine on marriage that "sexual relations find their natural, proper, and fully human meaning" (FS, 4).

While affirming this perennial truth, FS also reflects on how God loves us and laid down his life for us "while we were still sinners" (FS, 1). We know that Jesus welcomed all sorts of people in the Gospel, especially those who approached seeking His mercy with open hearts. Jesus responded with mercy so that these persons could experience His unconditional love. In that same gift, Jesus would invite them to live more fully as his disciples and to embrace the call to deeper repentance so as to enter more fully into His divine life. For example, one can think of how Jesus encounters the woman caught in adultery (Jn 8). Jesus receives her with mercy, saves her from being stoned to death, and then invites her to live in a different way: "Neither do I condemn you: go and do not sin again." At whatever stage we find ourselves in our path of conversion, we welcome such an encounter with the mercy of God, who loves us even as He calls us to more.

FS speaks of one way the merciful love of God can be experienced in the Church through spontaneous (non-liturgical) blessings. Such blessings unite "intercessory prayer with the invocation of God's help by those who humbly turn to him" (FS, 33), asking God that "all that is true, good, and humanly valid in their lives be enriched, healed, and elevated by the presence of the Holy Spirit" (FS, 31). How does this relate to individuals within irregular or same-sex unions? While we cannot bless the union of the two people, we may bless the individuals themselves, responding to their desire to receive God's help. Such a blessing, in light of all that has been said, is not to be mistaken for a marriage blessing and should never be done in a way that could cause "confusion or scandal" (FS, 39). This blessing is not for those seeking to legitimize their same-sex or irregular union but for those seeking to live more in union with the Holy Spirit and the values of the Gospel (FS, 40).

The Church is the Sacrament of God's love. What joy that gives each one of us! We know that "even when a person's relationship with God is clouded by sin, he can always ask for a blessing, stretching out his hand to God, as Peter did in the storm when he cried out to Jesus, 'Lord, save me!' (FS, 43). We take great comfort that God our Father wants to pour His blessing upon us through the Church, so that "every brother and every sister will be able to feel that, in the Church, they are always pilgrims, always beggars, always loved, and, despite everything, always blessed." (FS, 45).

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Have you made a resolution for more prayer this New Year? Signing up for an Adoration hour each week is a great way to do that! Adoration Chapel hours are Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays from 8:30 a.m.-9 p.m. You can stop in at any of those times or sign up for a regular Adoration hour at hnoj.weadorehim.com.

God wants to be close to us. The Eucharist is the miracle of this closeness in our lives. The goal of Adoration is to help us appreciate this miracle in a deeper way, so that we enter more deeply into the wonder of the Mass, and allow it to transform our lives.

"That one hour in the Adoration Chapel is my time to thank God, honor Him, listen to Him, and to ask Him for forgiveness, guidance and strength. The fuller your life is, the more you need that quiet hour with God."
~ Kris, regular admirer and parishioner at HNOJ.

Please contact Fr. Mike with any questions at frmike.reinhardt@hnoj.org.

Baking for Babies, Pro-Life Cinnamon Roll Sale Jan. 19-21

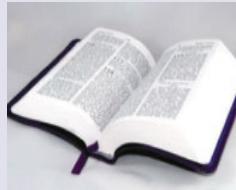

Two of the sweetest things in the world are babies and deliciously glazed cinnamon rolls. A Community Caring for Life (ACCL) is hosting Baking for Babies Pro-Life Cinnamon Roll Bake and Sale event Jan. 19-21. This will be the 32nd year the ACCL has put on this event.

The ACCL committee will give the money raised from our Baking for Babies event to both national organizations and local pregnancy centers who offer free pregnancy testing, ultrasounds, education, counseling and supplies for mothers to make that life choice an easier one.

Baking for Babies Pro-Life Cinnamon Roll Bake and Sale needs volunteers for frosting and assembling Friday and Saturday as well as selling rolls Saturday and Sunday. Please sign-up by using the QR code or online at hnoj.org/BakingForBabies.

We look forward to having parish members come together for a great cause. Any further questions can be directed to Melisa Eckert eckertmelis@gmail.com or Angie Paske angie.paske@gmail.com.

Scripture of the Week

*"He said to them, 'Come, and you will see.'"
(John 1:39a)*

Today's readings are about being called. In our First Reading we hear the story of God calling the prophet Samuel. In our Gospel, we hear that two of John the Baptizer's disciples leave John to follow Jesus, and then Andrew going to his brother Simon to tell him he had found the Messiah and then bringing Simon to Jesus.

That same call extends through the millennia to this very day. Each of us is called but not each of us will answer the call. We fear the potential of failing, we fear the potential of hardship and we fear the potential of walking into the unknown. And yet, each day most (all?) of us will fail at something, we will encounter hardships, we will face the unknown. Jesus's call is as simple today as it was then - "Come, and you will see." Can we, like Andrew, Simon and the others, have the simple faith to follow?
