TEMPORARY
ABSENT ADORER
PROCEDURES

Until such time as there are two scheduled adorers in every hour, please help us live up to our commitment to Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration by adhering to the following procedures should the next adorer not appear for their hour:

- 1) Stay through their hour if you possibly can!
- 2) Call the person who is scheduled to be there. He or she may have simply forgotten. Telephone numbers for all adorers are provided on the posted schedule.
- 3) Call the adorer for the hour following theirs. Perhaps that person could come early.
- 4) Call a friend or one of the people on the list of substitutes posted in the chapel.
- 5) If the above options fail to work, please contact one of the emergency adorers who will come to the chapel immediately. Don't be concerned about calling in the middle of the night; it's OK with them.

Emergency Adorers

Name	Telephone	Time of Day
Joanie Meehan	612 867 1207	Day time
Frank Renshaw	763 745 3484 763 473 4096	Week Day AM Week Day PM

- 6) If none of these options work, reverently cover Christ and the monstrance. Then, later that day or the next, please contact the hourly coordinator for the hour that was missed to notify them of the absence and how you addressed the situation. The hourly coordinator will then check to ensure all is well with the absent adorer, and help to find substitutes if necessary.

Thank you so much and may God continue to bless you.
