New Life - Its For Everyone

New life! There is nothing like it to make our spirits soar - whether it is a new baby born into the family or the first signs of spring after a long winter. New life brings with it hope and we all need hope in our lives. Besides hope, we all have a deep desire for truth and beauty and goodness. These are the hallmarks of the Catholic faith which is the greatest hope as well as the fullest sense of truth, beauty and goodness that we can share with someone.

If you don't believe this, just ask a person who has shared in the experience by coming into the Church through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). They will tell you what it means to be given hope and the fullness of truth, beauty and goodness. Everyone knows someone who came into the Catholic Church through RCIA, right?

RCIA has been around since the early days of the Church. The first followers of Christ were serious in sharing with others the Good News of Jesus Christ and the hope and love He brought to us. Jesus IS the embodiment of truth, beauty and goodness. It was natural for them to want to share this with others. In those days, the initiation process was longer (often one to three years) and included sharing in a communal life.

Today, the formal process is about eight to ten months long, but still requires a communal life. Those who are seeking to join the Church will attend sessions that will *in*form them, but they still require a community to help form them. That is where you, me and all of us in the Holy Name of Jesus family come in.

We all need to be involved. For some that means just being a friendly face or a willing pray-er, supporting them with prayer. For others it means being a part of the RCIA Team, attending the RCIA sessions and being a presence for them. For all of us it means being alive in our faith and excited to share what it means to us. It is always good to share with others something that we feel is important and exciting. What could be more exciting than making sense of this life and walking toward the eternal life?

Everybody knows someone who came into the Church through RCIA, right? Don't just ask them what it meant to them. Tell them what it meant to you. They have brought new life to us. Thank them for this life and for their witness as they journeyed to full membership in the Church.

Don't know someone who has come into the Church through RCIA? Maybe you should think about sharing with someone the goodness, truth and beauty of the Catholic faith. Your faith and enthusiasm may be just what they need to help them decide to fully immerse themselves in the oneness of the Church intended by Christ. "Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one" (Jn 17:11).

Don't see that beauty, truth and goodness? Maybe you should think about joining us in RCIA. We are open to all who want to know more about this one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church.

For more information, you can call the parish office at 763-473-7901 or Linda Corrigan at 763-923-8361. We will also be having Inquiry Sessions on the following dates:

Sunday, Aug. 12, after the 8:30 a.m. Mass
Saturday, Aug. 18, after the 5 p.m. Mass
Sunday, Aug. 26 after the 5:30 p.m. Mass
Sunday, Sept. 9, after the 10:30 a.m. Mass

Formal sessions will begin on Tuesday, Oct. 2 at 7 p.m. Join us in bringing about new life: hold us in prayer, join us on team, join us in formation. All are welcome.

New Communion Minister Training

Do you want to deepen and enrich your worship experience? Become a Communion Minister! You will share Christ by distributing the Body and Blood of Christ to your fellow parishioners at Mass. Training for this special ministry will be on Sunday, Aug. 12, from 7-8 p.m. in the main church (after the 5:30 p.m. Mass).

You need to be a Confirmed Catholic, in good standing with the Church and a registered parishioner of Holy Name of Jesus. Please contact Karen Palmer with questions, at 763-473-3834 or bkpalmer@comcast.net.

Participants will come to a deeper understanding of what we believe as Catholics and should gain confidence in making a solid defense of the Catholic faith. Scripture of the Week

"This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." (Jn 6:14)

Just as Elisha miraculously fed one hundred people with only twenty loaves, Jesus fed a crowd of over five thousand with just five loaves and two fish. Jesus is the new Elisha just as he was the new Moses, "the Prophet" whom they expected to come into this world.

Moses himself had foretold His coming: "The Lord will raise up for you a prophet like me from among you, from your brethren - him you shall heed" (Dt 18:15). God confirmed Moses' prophecy saying, "I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brethren (Dt 18:18).

Jesus is the fulfillment of all prophecy. The Church helps us to see this in many ways including by pairing readings that make this clear. Oh, the beauty of the truth which the Scriptures proclaim!

Still in a state of hardness of heart, Saint Augustine heard a still, small voice tell him to, "Take up and read" the Scriptures. Good advice for all of us. It was a revelation for him and it can be a revelation for all of us.
