Calling All Small Groups!

In our effort to provide a robust, parish wide small group ministry for each and every member of our parish, we seeking out small groups in the parish that might not be part of our current ministry offerings.

In other words, if any or most of these characteristics apply to your group we'd love to hear from you.

- Has met for more than four years.
- Is made up predominantly of Holy Name of Jesus parishioners.
- Studies or shares faith.
- Supports growing discipleship.
- Or you suspect we aren't aware of your group.

We are in the process of assessing the number of existing groups and group members we have in the parish. Any help in getting to a clearer and more complete picture of HNOJ Small Groups would be greatly appreciated.

Understanding the Mass

Have you ever wondered why we do what we do at Mass each Sunday or have you ever wanted to get more out of your experience at Mass? If you answered yes, then HNOJ's on campus study "Understanding the Mass" is for you. Topics include practical tips for a better Mass experience, the biblical roots of the words we use and the purpose and goal of going to Mass. This five-session study starts Oct. 9. You can register at the front desk or at hnoj.org/understandingmass. Contact Chris Kostelc at ckostelc@hnoj.org or Fr. Evans at fbryce.evans@hnoj.org with any questions.

Big•Small Dinner

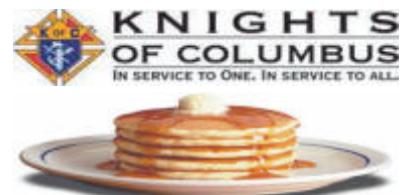

Sometimes it's difficult to make connections at a church as large as Holy Name of Jesus. Come to the Big•Small Dinner on Oct. 4, at Holy Name of Jesus. It's a chance to make small connections at a big church. Dinner is free and is catered by Rock Elm Tavern. We will also provide both nursery age and school-age care as well as dinner for the kids. The Big•Small Dinner is an opportunity to meet some of your fellow parishioners, come to know why Holy Name of Jesus is a special place and get to know our parish priests. RSVP or find out more at hnoj.org/bigsmalldinner.

Faith Formation

Ablaze 678:

What is a disciple of Jesus Christ? What does this look like as a middle schooler? Who else is striving to live as a disciple? If you're a middle schooler asking any of these questions, then Ablaze 678 is for you!

At Ablaze 678 we will go to 5:30 p.m. Mass together once a month, share a meal, get to know each other through awesome games, grow in knowledge of our faith and learn practical ways to live as disciples of Jesus Christ when we aren't at church. Ablaze 678 is open to all 6th-8th graders!

The schedule, more information and registration is available at hnoj.org/ablaze678. Contact Ashley Cermak with questions at acermak@hnoj.org.

Psalm 78: Oct. 26-28

We have a brand-new retreat opportunity for all 7th and 8th graders! The Psalm 78 retreat, led by our high school core team, is sure to be an unforgettable weekend of FUN (cake-decorating challenge, nighttime scavenger hunt, cereal party, ice cream sundae building), REST (opportunity for extra sleep & free time), FAITH OWNERSHIP (opportunities to ask questions & choose breakout sessions), FRIENDSHIP (small group discussion, plenty of opportunities to hang out with current friends and meet new ones), and ENCOUNTER with Christ (Adoration, Confession, Mass, and times of reflection). You'll leave this retreat feeling rejuvenated and more equipped to live out your faith as a middle schooler. This year's theme is "Real" as our topics and prayers will dive more deeply into how Jesus is really present to us in the Eucharist and how we can really experience Him at Mass.

Find registration forms at the Parish Office or at hnoj.org/psalm78. Questions? Contact Ashley at acermak@hnoj.org or 763-233-0251.

Scripture of the Week

"The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart." (Ps 19:8)

We know that we are not to intentionally harm ourselves or anyone else. Why would Jesus tell us that we should cut off our hand or foot or pluck out our eye if they cause us to sin? Wouldn't that be sinful in itself?

Of course, we are not supposed to intentionally harm anyone - including ourselves. Jesus is making a point through the use of hyperbole or exaggeration. The most important thing is not the life of our physical body, but the life of our soul. The temporary pleasures and treasures of this life rot and corrode. They provide a happiness that is fleeting.

God gives us the gift of the Spirit. This gift is not something we are to guard jealously, but share joyfully. Moses knew that. So did Jesus. It is important that we realize that we have all been gifted in some way and those gifts are to be used to make God known and loved. Used rightly, they bring glory to God in this life and lead to eternal life. What are your gifts? How can you use them to make God known and loved?

Dear Friends at Holy Name,
The weather has turned cooler now and I have many people coming to me for blankets and comforters. Will you please help me by donating your unused blankets and help keep a family warm tonight? I do not like to bother you but the need is urgent.

I thank you so much for your generosity. I know that I can always count on the people of Holy Name of Jesus to help me. God bless all of you!
Yours in Christ,

Fifty Years on the Family: A Look Back to the Present

A Saint John's School of Theology and Seminary Theology Day

Over the past fifty years, familial life has evolved in response to the "signs of the time." Changes within marriage and gender roles, as well as expectations regarding men and women's relationship to work have moved the family unit into uncharted territory.

This session aims to explore some of those changes by looking back on key statements made by the Church regarding family life (e.g., Gaudium et Spes, Familiaris Consortio by Pope John Paul II, and most recently Pope Francis' Amoris Laetitia) in hopes of celebrating progress made and identifying areas in which certain challenges still remain.

Oct. 11, check-in from 6 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. and presentation from 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m., Pax Christi Church, Eden Prairie.

Free event. Light refreshments provided. Registration is required: www.collegevilleMN.com/theologyday, 320-363-3560 or theologyday@csbsju.edu.
