Rite of Christian Initiation at Holy Name of Jesus

By Grace Johnson, Clergy and Liturgy Assistant

"The world is thy ship, not thy home" (Saint Therese of Lisieux). Therese tells us that our time on Earth is temporal, and not our end goal – union with Christ in heaven is. However, it is the first part of this quote that strikes me. The analogy of the ship got me thinking; what is needed for a ship to sail? It needs a group of people all contributing to different areas with one goal – to sail. This indicates to me that faith is meant to be lived in a community. We are meant to share Christ with each other as He is our goal.

Since the fall, there have been 24 individuals praying, studying, learning, growing and encountering the Catholic faith. These 24 have demonstrated courageous faith, beautiful openness of heart and total vulnerability. During our time together, we have become a family. We have come to know each other, relate to each other and lean on each other. We have two different groups in RCIA this year: kids and adults. Our adult class is filled with lots of laughter and lively small group discussions. Our kids' group is comprised of children who all have such a passionate desire to receive their Sacraments.

In learning more about Christ and the Catholic Church together, we are all growing. This includes our Catechumens (those not yet baptized), Candidates (those who have already been baptized seeking full communion in the Catholic Church), Sponsors (those who have a special role to support and accompany either their Catechumen or Candidate) and everyone else involved in our RCIA team of support. This growth includes: growing closer to God, each other, the Catholic Church, particular Saints and to the Holy Name of Jesus Parish specifically.

Through being involved in RCIA, I have been very struck by the truth that we are indeed one Body in Christ. All 24 have come into RCIA with completely different life situations, but they are all unified in their one desire - Christ. At this year's Easter Vigil, they will be receiving the Sacraments of Baptism (if they have not yet already been Baptized), first Eucharist and Confirmation. Please pray for these 24 individuals, their Sponsors, their families and for our RCIA Team. May we continue to sail onwards toward Christ, united in that goal as one family!

Women's Retreat, Registration is Open!

Calling ALL women! With Lent around the corner, many of us are focused on setting goals for the 40 days leading up to Easter. Then what? Consider making the most of this Easter season by setting aside a day to explore the concept of joy. Holy Name of Jesus will be hosting a women's retreat led by Mighty is Her Call on Saturday, April 15, from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. The cost is $45 (scholarships are available). Breakfast and lunch are both included. Register today at hnoj.org/womensretreat2023.

Mighty is Her Call (MIHC) is a fast-growing Catholic women's ministry based in Dallas, Texas. Their ministry primarily works to support and nourish mothers in their vocation, but the focus isn't as narrow as one might think. At HNOJ, we are inviting all women ages 22-102 to come together. This retreat will not cater to a specific age or life-stage; instead, we hope to provide an intergenerational retreat experience where we can embrace our shared identity as Daughters of God. As MIHC describes the retreat experience, "It's a chance for you to reflect on the importance of your vocation, to relax and to remember just how powerful, meaningful and Christ-filled your life is."

The theme of this year's retreat is Her Call is Joy. What a beautiful way to take the fruits of Lent and enter fully into the Easter season! Any questions? Email Angie Paske at angie.paske@gmail.com or Chris Kostelc at ckostelc@hnoj.org.

A Note From Michele Schatz

Dear friends,

After nearly ten amazing years working as Receptionist/Office Coordinator, I have decided to move on to a new and exciting change.

I have been so blessed by all the staff members and families of Holy Name of Jesus! I'll never forget our parish families allowing me to be a part of their children's lives when they come through the door. I truly have never been part of a more open, welcoming and caring parish. HNOJ epitomizes the Benedictine way and you should all be so proud of that!

I will deeply miss you and I'm grateful that God gave me this opportunity.

Many blessings to you,
Michele Schatz

We are so grateful for Michele's nine and a half years of service at Holy Name of Jesus and wish her well on her next chapter. Her last day is Feb. 24.

Resources This Lent

Dynamic Catholic

Subscribe for free to daily emails with "The Best Lent Ever." Every day, you will receive two short, practical and inspiring videos in your inbox, each representing a pathway leading toward a better version of you and a closer relationship with God. <https://www.dynamiccatholic.com/lent.html>

Word on Fire

Check out the Lenten Gospel reflections and articles as a great resource for growing in your understanding of scripture. <https://dailycatholicgospel.com/lent-reflections-2023>

Formed.org

So many great options on Formed! Here are a couple to note. Check out all the great options at <https://formed.org>.

1. "Fearless" is a new seven-part series brought to you in partnership with Real Life Catholic and Formed. Time and again, the people of God are called to be courageous and "be not afraid." Yet we live in a time where fear seems to guide our very existence. Don't miss this exciting series with a special weekly guest as we follow Jesus into the wilderness.

2. "Return with Fr. John Burns." Fr. John Burns invites you on a pilgrimage this Lent using Return. Fr. John will guide you through the most difficult season of the Church, yet also the most transformative. Are you ready to enter the desert and experience the richness of the Paschal Mystery?

Confession

Lent is such a great time to hit the reset button. Experience God's mercy in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We have added Confession times during Lent on Thursdays from 7-8 p.m. beginning March 4.

Scripture of the Week

"Be holy, for I, the Lord, your God, am Holy."
(Leviticus 19:2b)

This week we hear the author of Leviticus call us to be holy as God is holy. We also hear Paul tell us that we are temples of the Spirit of God, and Jesus call us to "be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect." This expands on the messages from last week calling us to a conversion of heart. For this is how we can be holy, this is how we can truly be living temples, this is how we can be perfect - love, and do so perfectly.

What does perfect love look like? No place and in no thing is the look of perfect love more evident than to gaze upon Jesus on His cross. In the book of Romans, we hear that "while we were still sinners, He died for us." This is the transformation of the heart then, to die to self in order that we are free to truly love others. Love as He loves us.

Please register online at www.hnoj.org/SmallGroupTraining and join us on Sunday, Feb. 19, from 2-5 p.m. in the Emmaus Rooms.

A Community Caring for Life

"We often assume parenthood happens easily after 'I do,' but for many married couples, it does not. For some, the joy of conception never happens. Others suffer repeated miscarriages. Still others experience secondary infertility... If you experience difficulty bringing a child into your family, know that you are not alone. God is with you, and His Church desires to walk with you... God has a beautiful plan for your life as a married couple." -Republished from the USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities

Please check out 'Seven Considerations While Navigating Infertility' at www.respectlife.org/navigating-infertility.

Catholic Services Appeal This Weekend

Today we come together as a community of faith to generously give to the Catholic Services Appeal.

Your gift supports an array of ministries that include pro-life, seminarian support, Catholic education, services to those most in need and Synod evangelistic priorities in the building up of our local church.

With your gift, you are making Jesus known and loved to people throughout the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis.

Please prayerfully consider making a gift that will impact the lives of so many people throughout the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis through your abundant generosity. To learn more, please visit csafspm.org. You can donate using the website, QR code or the envelope in your pew. Feel free to take the envelope home and mail it in or bring it back next weekend. If we meet our goal, a portion of your donations will come back to HNOJ.
