Gospel Reflection

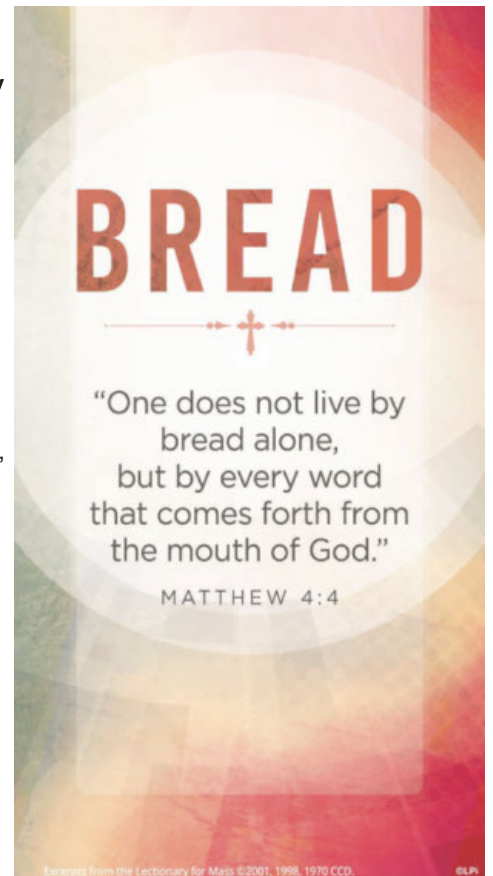

The Spirit leads Jesus into the desert to be tempted by the devil, and we hear this: “He fasted for forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was hungry.” Seems like a questionable battle preparation plan. When I fast, I usually feel grouchy at best, and at worst, like I might pass out from longing for a hamburger. Isn't it better to be well-fed and fully hydrated, especially to face spiritual struggles? Why fast?

This might help. The origin of the word “fast” means to “hold firmly.” We still use it that way when we say, “I held fast to my original decision.” We human beings are a bundle of desires which vie for our attention: food, drink, comfort, safety, sex, laughter, beauty and so on. If we can't manage to have firm grip on them, in short order they'll have a firm grip on us. By fasting from our lower desires, we learn to firmly grip on to what is greater. Fasting leads us to a firmer hold on our body and mind.

Jesus fasts for us. He's showing us that His grace can help us regain this firm hold of our lives, which makes it more difficult for the devil to tempt us. But take it one more step. Fasting also teaches us to finally hold fast to Jesus, the Word of God in flesh. “Man does not live by bread alone,” he says, “But by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.” Jesus' fasting reveals His fast hold to the Father in everything. May our fasting help us to grasp ourselves more firmly, and then to hold fast to Jesus alone.

Scripture of the Week

"The Lord God formed man out of the clay of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life."

(Genesis 2:7)

We have entered the desert. We hear of the formation of the first of mankind out of the clay of the ground in our First Reading from Genesis. And in our Gospel Reading we find Jesus being led by the Spirit into the "desolate" to be tempted. The Greek word eremos in St. Matthew's text becomes "desert". We encounter two distinct men, Adam and Jesus, the new Adam. This is our journey as we enter Lent, from the adamah of our own beginning through the desert to new life in Christ.

We place ourselves, with Jesus, in a time of desolation - a time of desert wandering. For us it is not so much as an invitation to be tempted by the enemy as it is the realization of our need to become more closely aligned with and connected to Jesus so that the temptations of life can be conquered. The desolation of the desert can be the ideal place to unload the baggage of sin, the burden of false self-identities and the idea that if we just "tough it out" all alone we can somehow save ourselves. We can literally lay our burdens at the foot of His cross and watch the end of the story we know is coming in just seven weeks. Because at His rising on Easter, our sins will be washed away if we but let Jesus truly reign as our Savior and King.

Women's Retreat, Registration is Open!

Calling ALL women! With Lent around the corner, many of us are focused on setting goals for the 40 days leading up to Easter. Then what? Consider making the most of this Easter season by setting aside a day to explore the concept of joy. Holy Name of Jesus will be hosting a women's retreat led by Mighty is Her Call on Saturday, April 15, from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. The cost is $45 (scholarships are available). Breakfast and lunch are both included. Register today at hnoj.org/womensretreat2023.

Mighty is Her Call (MIHC) is a fast-growing Catholic women's ministry based in Dallas, Texas. Their ministry primarily works to support and nourish mothers in their vocation, but the focus isn't as narrow as one might think. At HNOJ, we are inviting all women ages 22-102 to come together. This retreat will not cater to a specific age or life-stage; instead, we hope to provide an intergenerational retreat experience where we can embrace our shared identity as Daughters of God. As MIHC describes the retreat experience, "It's a chance for you to reflect on the importance of your vocation, to relax and to remember just how powerful, meaningful and Christ-filled your life is."

The theme of this year's retreat is Her Call is Joy. What a beautiful way to take the fruits of Lent and enter fully into the Easter season! Any questions? Email Angie Paske at angie.paske@gmail.com or Chris Kostelc at kostelc@hnoj.org.
