A Little Change to Confession

The U.S. bishops' conference voted in June 2021 to amend the Order of Penance in two ways. Those changes were then approved by the Dicastery for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments last year, and began on Ash Wednesday, 2023.

1. The translation of the prayer of absolution, said by the priest, has changed slightly to:

*“God, the Father of mercies, through the death and resurrection of his Son has reconciled the world to himself and poured out the Holy Spirit for the forgiveness of sins;
through the ministry of the Church
may God grant you pardon and peace.
And I absolve you from your sins in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”*

The Vatican also approved an alternative version (there are several already) of the act of contrition for penitents to say while going to confession.

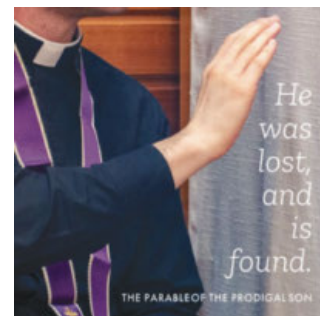

*O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended you, and I detest all my sins because of your just punishments,
but most of all because they offend you, my God,
who are all good and deserving of all my love.
I firmly resolve, with the help of your grace,
to sin no more and to avoid the near occasions of sin.
Amen.*

2. The bishops also voted to allow priests to use “a selection of stanzas which form a coherent whole” during penance services, instead of using an entire psalm.

This means that more priests may choose to read a selection of scripture both in a communal penance service and in individual confession.

Scripture of the Week

"But God proves His love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ did for us."

(Romans 5:8)

Water is the theme for today's First Reading and the Gospel. But water is not the only thing we thirst for. Saint Paul tells us of the love of God which has been poured out into our very hearts. In this act, we are "justified by faith" and given a hope that "does not disappoint". We hear the promise of redemption, a transformation from helplessness because, as Paul concludes, "God proves His love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us."

We often have the sense that we must pursue Jesus, we must run after God. And when we think these things, we have it exactly backwards. We are the ones God chases after. As we heard from the Catechism last week, God invites us to be joined to Him. And from Paul today as quoted above. This is the mystery of the water offered to the Samaritan woman in today's Gospel from St. John. That water Jesus promised is the very love of God in the Holy Spirit, poured into us each time we come to the Eucharistic table. God runs after us. We just must stop running away and allow Him to catch us in His loving embrace.

You are invited to the Upper Room!

Longing for more this Lenten Season? Seeking fellowship and belonging in a Catholic Christian community? Consider joining a small group at HNOJ, like a Quad.

Here's what makes Discipleship Quads different than anything else you'll find:

- The size of the Quad is four men or four women allowing for a greater intimacy among members
- Fellowship is a meaningful part of the experience
- The curriculum is easy to follow and has elements of scripture study with insightful, practical application of faith into realities of life
- It is inexpensive and ready to go (available on Amazon.com or at HNOJ for $20 for the entire Quad)
- This model has had over three decades of success; three groups that have piloted the program at HNOJ have experienced the powerful transformation in the faith lives of members

Small Groups are one of the highest priorities of the Archbishop's Synod Implementation. He writes that small groups, "foster the experience in the Upper Room of "washing of the feet" through personal relationships, building community and supplying formation that will help parishioners grow as missionary of Christ."

Interested? Here are two ways to find out more:

1. Fill out a "Small Group Interest Form" found on the bulletin stand in the Gathering Space and designate "Quad" in the space provided then submit it in the faith formation box
2. Visit the Quads page of the website www.hnoj.org/quads and enter your information there

If you have any questions, please email Tim Lyngdal at tlyngdal@hnoj.org.

In Our Parish and Our Community

Now Hiring: Accounting and Human Resource Specialist

We are now hiring an Accounting and Human Resource Specialist. This full-time (32+ hours/week) in-office position will manage the accounts payable, accounts receivable, payroll/benefits and human resources support for the organization. Applicants must submit a cover letter, resume and references to Morgan Rock via email at morgan@yourlss.com. Please help spread the word!

Easter Basket Collection, April 1-2

HNOJ will be collecting ready-made Easter baskets on April 1 and 2, after all the Masses. The baskets will be donated to Sharing and Caring Hands, Mary's Place and Interfaith Outreach.

Every child looks forward to receiving an Easter basket and there are many families who need your help to make this happen. Your generosity is greatly appreciated. You may place your carefully wrapped baskets on the tables in the gym.

Please call Teresa Walker at 763-553-1343 if you have any questions.

March Cemetery Cleanup

Maintenance will be cleaning the cemetery grounds between the dates of March 19-31. Please remove evergreens and anything of value before March 19. Easter decorations may be added to gravesites beginning with Holy Week (April 2).

Volunteers Needed!

Our annual March Food Drive is coming up soon! We need about 10 to 20 volunteers to help get our grocery bags ready.

Can you spare an hour or two on Tuesday, March 14, anytime between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.?

Volunteers will be attaching the flyer to grocery bags. If you can help, please sign up at the welcome desk in the Gathering Space. Thank you!

Global Solidarity Next Weekend

Global Solidarity Sunday is an annual parish collection, observed the weekend of March 18-19, that supports the spiritual and material needs of four important global priorities of the U.S. Catholic Bishops: the struggling Church in Central and Eastern Europe, Africa, Latin America and humanitarian activities of Catholic Relief Services.

This year Global Solidarity Sunday is observed with the theme, "...I was blind and now I see" (Jn 9:25). This is an invitation for all to reach out, around the world, and let our light shine for God's mercy, love and healing - so crucial today! Please be as generous as you are able and share God's light for your brothers and sisters around the world. Envelopes may be found in your packets. Thank you.

Thank You for Your Generosity!

We received a note from the Retirement Fund for Religious who thanks Holy Name of Jesus for our $1,025 contribution.

On behalf of all retired Women Religious, Brothers and Religious Order Priests, thank you for your support of the annual Retirement Fund for Religious Appeal! Your contribution will enable many religious communities to meet their pressing retirement needs and support the retirement planning for newer religious communities. Your generosity is a real blessing in support of all those who have witnessed to a lifetime of dedicated service.
