New Summer Sacrament Opportunities

By Fr. Tim Wratkowski

In my first two years here, which have been extremely blessed, I have often heard two requests regarding the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Mass. People have asked me, "Can we have another scheduled time for Reconciliation?" And I've also heard,
"We used to have a Mass on Saturday morning, can we start that again?" It is edifying for me to hear the spiritual hunger and desire to grow in your faith. Given that we are blessed to have three priests around for the summer, and after consultation with the parish staff and the Liturgy Commission, I am pleased to announce that we will be adding an additional opportunity for Reconciliation and a Saturday morning daily Mass at least through the summer.

Starting this week, we will be offering the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Wednesdays from 5:15-6:15 p.m., the first day being July 26. We chose an evening time with the hopes that those interested could stop by on their way home from work before dinner time. We know that no time will work for everyone's schedule, but we hope this opportunity will be helpful. In addition, anyone is welcome to set up a private appointment for Reconciliation outside of the regularly scheduled times (through Grace Johnson gjohnson@hnoj.org if you would like to remain anonymous.)

Also, starting this week on July 29, we will be offering a daily Mass on Saturdays at 8 a.m., with the usual Reconciliation to follow at 8:30 a.m. From ancient times, the Church has had a beautiful tradition of dedicating Saturdays to the Blessed Virgin Mary, as on the Saturday between Good Friday and Easter Sunday, the faith of the Church resided in Mary, whose faith did not waver at the foot of the Cross. Therefore, the Church has a rich treasury of Mass formularies dedicated to Mary, and we hope to celebrate some of these Masses on Saturdays which are not impeded by another saint's celebration.

We hope you and your families will join us for these wonderful opportunities to grow in your faith this summer!

Mass Isn't Boring, You're Just Bored at Mass

Join Fr. Ryan Glaser for a series of lectures on the spirituality and theology of the Church's liturgy. The goal of these lectures is to come to a deeper understanding and appreciation of the Church's worship as well as to aid in a fuller, "actual" participation in the liturgy as called for by the Second Vatican Council and recent Popes. Fr. Ryan will present for about 45 minutes so as to leave time for discussion and Q&A at the end. Each lecture is "self-contained" so no worries if you cannot make it to all of them, come to as many or as few as you would like. We hope you will join us for what is sure to be an exciting and lively presentation and discussion!

The lectures will each be offered once at 10 a.m. and the other at 7 p.m. on Wednesdays, beginning next week. The topics are listed below. While there is no cost to attend, we do kindly ask you to register for any dates you think you might attend to help with our planning purposes.

Wednesday, July 26: "In the Beginning..." (Liturgy in the Old Testament)

Wednesday, Aug. 2: "Do this in Memory of Me" (Jesus and Liturgy)

Wednesday, Aug. 16: "Vatican II said WHAT?!" (Liturgical Reforms of Vatican II)

Wednesday, Aug. 23: "Words, Worship, and the Word" (Scripture and the Liturgy)

Wednesday, Aug. 30: "Behold, the Lamb of God" (Sacrifice of the Eucharist)

You can register online at www.hnoj.org/lectureseries. Please contact Fr. Ryan at frryan.glaser@hnoj.org if you have any questions.

Please note our Senior Bible Study date change for these five weeks:

From July 24-Aug. 28 HNOJ will not be holding our normal Monday morning Senior Bible Study. In its place seniors are encouraged to register for and attend Fr. Ryan's Mass Lecture Series 'Mass Isn't Boring'.

NPH Second Collection, This Weekend

Nuestros Pequeños Hermanos is a charitable organization serving orphaned and abandoned children in Latin America and the Caribbean. Its mission is to provide shelter, food, clothing, healthcare and education in a Christian family environment based on unconditional acceptance and love, sharing, working and responsibility.

Please stop by the NPH table in the Gathering Space after Masses this weekend to learn more!

Due to low registrations, there won't be a Nuestros Pequeños Hermanos Mission Trip this summer. We have a long-standing relationship with NPH and still want to support them as best we can, so we are still having a second collection this weekend.

You may use the QR code to give online, or simply use the envelope provided in your packet or in the pew. Thank you for your generosity!

You can learn more about NPH, including how to sponsor a child, at www.nphusa.org. Visit www.hnoj.org/support-NPH-summer for more information.

Scripture of the Week

"The Spirit comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought" (Romans 8:26a)

This week we hear three more parables from Jesus: the weeds in the field, the mustard seed and what is often called the parable of the leaven. The first stands apart from the second and third. In each of the latter, something good is represented by something small that affects a larger thing - the mustard seed is tiny, but grows a large plant, the leaven (or yeast) is far less than the measure of flour to make bread, but a small amount leavens the entire batch of bread.

It is the first parable of the weeds in the field that Jesus will go on to explain. The wheat is desired, a good thing, even a necessary thing, but alongside it in the field grows weeds - something undesired. Isn't that true of our daily lives? We desire the good; yet we deal with things that we cannot control that distract or bother us. We are reminded that, in the end, God will sort everything out. Our job is to trust and to stand firm in the field. To simply do (and be) the good that we are called to do.

Weekly reflections by parishioner Jon Hickman.
