Extra-Ordinary Time

By Fr. Mike Reinhardt

I write this on the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary in this Nineteenth Week in Ordinary Time. We've recently celebrated St. John Vianney, St. Dominic, St. Lawrence, St. Clare and St. Maximilian Kolbe. We have St. Pius X, the Queenship of Mary, St. Bartholomew, St. Augustine and the Passion of St. John the Baptist to look forward to you. At our staff stand-up meeting this morning, one staff member asked for prayers for the soul of a dear friend, five years departed.

Perhaps you have some of your own personal memorials in these weeks as well, some loved ones whose memory you grieve and cherish. Or perhaps you have some personal feast days on your calendar—birthdays, anniversaries of weddings and Baptisms.

We call these weeks Ordinary Time, and what is meant by "ordinary" is something closer to 'ordered' than the connotation of usual, typical or routine.
It is ordered because it is not just one repetitive day after another. It is part of our particular path to God, and no day, no step on that path, is insignificant.

Ordered time is divided into two big chunks, one following the Christmas season, and the other following the Easter season. It is the time after the birth of Christ, and the time after the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. It is anything but ordinary. It is a time of coming to terms with what that means. In the words of the Church, "it is a time for growth and maturation, a time in which the mystery of Christ is called to penetrate ever more deeply into history until all things are finally caught up in Christ."

It is a time whose weekly rhythm is driven by Fridays and Sundays, Fridays in which we join with Christ crucified in some penitential act and Sundays where we rejoice with our risen Lord and Savior, and whose daily rhythm is often marked by prayers at meals and at bed. It is a time punctuated by particular feasts and fasts, those of the Church universal, the local Church and those of our own families. Each of these is an opportunity for growth and maturation, remembering who we are, who we are a member of, and where, with His grace and our cooperation, we are headed.

Please don't let these many opportunities pass you by. Take each of them as they come. The goal, toward which each of our lives and all of history is directed, is represented by the final Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Long live the King! May He reign in our hearts!

New Auditioned Children's Choirs

Holy Name of Jesus is now part of the American Federation Pueri Cantores and will continue to spread the education of the values of Catholic faith through music and liturgical understanding. We will also employ the "Voice for Life" music curriculum of the Royal School of Church Music (RSCM).

Because of the affiliations with PUERI CANTORES and RSCM, Dr. Richard Owen will direct two new groups of choirs for children. Both are auditioned choirs; one for girls and one for boys grades 4 through 6.

Auditions will be held Aug. 15-Sept. 1. Please contact Dr. Owen via email at rowen@hnoj.org to schedule an audition time.

Rehearsals are on Tuesdays beginning Sept. 5, 2023. St. Cecilia (GIRLS) from 5:15-6 p.m. in the Music Center Room 122. St. Michael (BOYS) from 6:15-7 p.m. in the Music Center Room 122.

The groups will sing at the 8:30 a.m. Mass once or twice a month.

Mass Isn't Boring, You're Just Bored at Mass

We have two more sessions left in our summer lecture series:

- Wednesday, Aug. 23: "Words, Worship and the Word" (Scripture and the Liturgy)
- Wednesday, Aug. 30: "Behold, the Lamb of God" (Sacrifice of the Eucharist)

The lectures are offered once at 10 a.m. and the other at 7 p.m. on Wednesdays, and it's not too late to join. While there is no cost to attend. We've had so many people attend that the talks are now held in the church.

You can see the entire list of subjects online at www.hnoj.org/lectureseries. Please contact Fr. Ryan at frryan.glaser@hnoj.org if you have any questions.

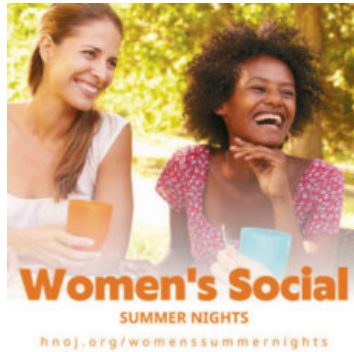

Women's Social, Aug. 24

We have one more women's social event this summer. For questions, please email Chris at ckostelc@hnoj.org.

Women's Social

Women will gather on a new or old friend's deck and enjoy a "bring your own beverage" with a group of friends from church. For more information and to register visit hnoj.org/womenssummernights.

The social will take place from 7-9 p.m. on the Thursday, Aug. 24.

Pints with a Priest for Young Adults, Aug. 30

On Aug. 30, following the conclusion of Fr. Ryan's "Mass Isn't Boring" lecture series, the 20s and 30s young adult group will head to Luce Line Brewery in Plymouth to celebrate with him. The group will meet at the brewery at 8:15 p.m. We hope you can join us! Reach out to Tim at tlyngdal@hnoj.org if you have questions.

Scripture of the Week

"I am speaking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles..." (Romans 11:13)

Some of the difficulties encountered by the disciples after the death and resurrection of Jesus in the 1st century are still present today. Many of the early disciples believed that Jesus, as a Jew, came to redeem the Jewish people alone. Ironically, Paul, a devout Jew who was one of the fiercest persecutors of the early Christians ended up being the strongest ally of the Gentiles during those times.

Today is not so very different in many regards. People disbelieve and doubt. Some say the whole "church thing" is not for them, that it is past its prime. But today's readings shred that narrative. Jesus did come for the Gentiles as well as the Jews. Back in the 1st century and up until this very day. The Gentile woman persisted in her request that Jesus heal her daughter because she had immovable faith that He could do so. And He did. Pray we have the faith of the outsider to come to Jesus no matter the cost. Because, in the end, no cost is too great and nothing else really matters.

Weekly reflections by parishioner Jon Hickman.

Small Group Formation this Fall!

The Archdiocesan Synod is back! Actually, it never left. Twelve people from Holy Name of Jesus worked with the Archdiocese last year to respond to what Twin Cities Catholics, our priests and bishops desire for our parishes.

This first year is all about building a robust, parish-wide, small group ministry which will make disciples in a similar way the early Church did; by inviting each and every one of us to join a small group at HNOJ! This ministry launches this fall, on either Monday or Thursday, for seven weeks and will use materials from the Archdiocese.

If you want to learn about the vision for small groups at HNOJ, or about how Archbishop Hebda desires us to grow in faith, then this fall's small group formation program is for you! Register for this Synod small group training at www.hnoj.org/synodtraining. Contact Tim Lyngdal with questions.

In Our Parish and Our Community

Womens Wisdom on Wednesdays

WWW is a community of women who meet on Wednesdays from 10:30 a.m.-12 p.m. throughout the year at Holy Name of Jesus for fellowship and learning.

This year's theme is about telling our stories. Let your legacy be more than financial...let it be your life story that only you can tell. This year, we will answer a series of questions about our lives - maybe the same ones you wish your parents or grandparents had answered. In doing so, we will tell our stories - which are every bit as important as those of our ancestors. Together, we will work to create a gift like no other for our children and grandchildren.
