Our Mission and Ministry at HNOJ

By Chris Kostelc, Director of Mission and Faith Formation

At the bottom of the HNOJ.org website, underneath our parish logo, rests our community mission statement. You've probably heard it. If you were around when we first rolled it out many years ago you may even be able to recite it.

Sharing in the Body of Christ, we seek to Know the heart of Christ, See the face of Christ and Be the hands of Christ.

Poetic and brief, this mission statement calls us to grow in our knowledge of the faith, spend time gazing upon the face of our God, and living our Baptismal call out in the world. Learn, pray and act; all good things. We certainly need to pray that we can live out this challenging call well.

You might have heard a staff member or fellow parishioner shorten this statement to simply, "Know, See, Be." While a good summary of the action we are called to, I think it misses the fundamental foundation of the entire mission.

Sharing in the Body of Christ points to the reality that at HNOJ we Know, we See and we Be - together. We do these actions of faith in communion with each other. At HNOJ, and for all Catholics, faith is personal, but it is never private. We together pray on Sunday, not as the bodies of Christ, but as the Body of Christ. We are united in love and mission. To borrow a phrase from a local football coach - we are all rowing the boat together.

The result of the Archdiocesan Synod showed an overwhelming call for the growth of small groups as a strategy to grow this kind of community at parishes all over the Archdiocese. HNOJ along with our neighboring Catholic Churches are engaging in a multiyear process to grow small groups. This is a heavy life and incredible ask, but one that will benefit all of us. Isn't a God-sized goal exactly what we need to be a community united in love and mission?

This is the reason for the recent construction around HNOJ. The previous Faith Formation office spaces off of the Gathering Space are being converted to small group meeting rooms. Multiple staff members have generously agreed to move their daily work space to make more room for small groups and community-building activities. In addition, because Holy Name of Jesus School enrollment is up, the school is moving walls in order to add more classroom space.

All of this work is being done to:

- better accomplish HNOJ's vision of making disciples of Jesus Christ in the 21st century.
- so that we can share in the Body of Christ, not only during Mass on Sunday, but in our study, our prayer and our service of others.
- to help each of us grow in our faith in Jesus Christ.

Please keep the construction, the mission and the resulting ministry activity in your prayers this fall. And join the mission by signing up for the small group training study starting at the end of September which can be found at www.hnoj.org/synodtraining and also on page three of this newsletter.

Small Group Formation

The Archdiocesan Synod is back! Actually, it never left. Twelve people from Holy Name of Jesus worked with the Archdiocese last year to respond to what Twin Cities Catholics, our priests and bishops desire for our parishes.

This first year is all about building a robust, parish-wide, small group ministry which will make disciples in a similar way the early Church did, by inviting each and every one of us to join a small group at HNOJ! This ministry launches this month, on either Monday or Thursday, for seven weeks and will use materials from the Archdiocese.

If you want to learn about the vision for small groups at HNOJ, or about how Archbishop Hebda desires us to grow in faith, then this fall's small group formation program is for you! Register for this Synod small group training at www.hnoj.org/synodtraining. Contact Tim Lyngdal with questions.

Parenting Act II

Are you praying earnestly for your adult children? Worrying about their lifestyle choices? Hoping for their return to Mother Church? Wishing you could help them through hard times and difficult circumstances? All parents of young adults do, even those whose kids seem to be doing well!

Parenting Act II is a small group that meets monthly September to May to pray for our grown children, support each other and learn more about parenting in the empty-nest phase of family life. Each year, we choose a book to guide our study. This year we will be reading and discussing Empty Nest: What Next by Michelle Howe, which explores how our relationship with our children changes once they become adults.

You are welcome to join the group, either as a couple or solo parent. You are free to share as much or little as you like about the tribulations of your family. All worries shared with the group are completely confidential. If you are too busy to read some chapters we will understand. We also know you may not be able to attend all sessions and that's okay!

Our first meeting will be on Monday, Sept. 18, at 6:45 p.m. in one of the newly renovated meeting rooms at HNOJ (pending their completion). Want to participate? Questions? Need to know more? Contact Karen Karn at kekarn@comcast.net or 612-709-8412. Please feel free to just drop in!

WWW is a community of women who meet throughout the year at Holy Name of Jesus for fellowship and learning.

Volunteers Needed for Fall Festival

Like any event, it's smooth operation relies upon having enough volunteers. There are so many ways you can help, if even for just an hour. Here are some examples:

Help with setup: set up tables and chairs, hang signs, run electrical and hang up signs! No experience is needed.

Sales: meet some of our own Knights of Columbus members by helping out with food sales or at the Country Market. If you are 21 or older, you are needed at the beer tent. If you are not quite 21, help with soda sales or at our ticket booths!

Kids Games: great for teen volunteers, age 14 and older.

Train Operator: if you are 21 or older, spend an hour driving the kids dragon train in the evening. If not quite 21, you can volunteer as an assistant.

Tear down and clean up crew: one of the most important jobs of putting on a parish event is clean up!

Find a link to our SignUp Genius page at www.hnoj.org/fallfest. Or look for a sign up sheet in the Gathering Space during the ticket sales weekend.
