Slow Down

By Fr. Mike Reinhardt

How do we keep the love of Jesus fresh in our hearts? For someone who is faithful to daily prayers, the sheer quantity of Our Fathers and Hail Marys can add up to tens of thousands over the course of a life well lived. How often have we heard the Parable of the Prodigal Son or Luke's magnificent account of the birth of Jesus? How do we keep our relationship to Jesus fresh? How do pray and really let the meaning sink in and receive what the Lord is offering to us in that moment? How do we hear the extraordinary words of the Gospel with open ears and an expectant faith?

I can give you all sorts of advice – spiritual reading, Bible study, small groups, the “Bible in a Year” podcast or programs like “The Chosen” – these are all good things and can help us grow in our faith. But I want to suggest one practice that is even more fundamental: SLOW DOWN!

When we rush through things, when we hurry from one task or event to the next, we aren't as present or attentive. To fully receive what God has for us, we must be present and attentive. God most often speaks to us in that “still small voice” by which the prophet Isaiah heard him in the cave.

I remember reading a book by Fr. Timothy Gallagher, a priest of many decades who has written many popular books on discernment of spirits, Ignatian spirituality and the like. This book was a more personal reflection on his experience with the liturgy of the hours, the prayers that priests promise to pray five times a day. He prayed the liturgy of the hours faithfully, but struggled to receive anything from those prayers. Then he slowed down. He began to pray at a more deliberate pace, allowing the beautiful words to really settle into his attention. This transformed his experience of the liturgy of the hours, making it much richer and more meaningful.

This advice, slow down, isn't just for you during your prayers. I invite you to slow down and be more attentive throughout your day. God, Immanuel, is with us at all times. He wants us to draw near to Him at all times as well. When we slow down in an intentional and attentive way, we are able to do that, to notice that still small voice of God or those promptings of His within our hearts. This may mean less frenetic activity, and fewer videos or those brief messages formerly known as tweets. But in other ways, it means more – more peace and calm and joy, more connectedness, more meaning. It means more noticing how the Scriptures are speaking into your life today, and it means more of seeing Jesus in those around us.

How do we keep the love of Jesus fresh in our hearts? By slowing down to a human pace and giving yourself a chance to respond to his presence in your life.

A Note of Gratitude from Fr. Ryan

I just want to thank all of you again for your love and support of me these past three summers! You have all been an incredible blessing in my life, and I have been so touched to read the notes and cards many of you have left for me speaking about what God has been doing in your life. It has been an incredible honor to learn from you and to minister to you, know that my prayers for Holy Name of Jesus will continue as I return to Rome to complete my studies.

Parenting Act II

Are you praying earnestly for your adult children? Worrying about their lifestyle choices? Hoping for their return to Mother Church? Wishing you could help them through hard times and difficult circumstances? All parents of young adults do, even those whose kids seem to be doing well!

Parenting Act II is a small group that meets monthly on the third Monday of each month at 6:45 p.m., from September to May. We pray for our grown children, support each other and learn more about parenting in the empty-nest phase of family life. This year we will be reading and discussing Empty Nest: What Next by Michelle Howe, which explores how our relationship with our children changes once they become adults. You are welcome to join the group, either as a couple or solo parent.

Want to participate? Questions? Need to know more? Contact Karen Karn at kekarn@comcast.net or 612-709-8412. Please feel free to just drop in!

Scripture of the Week

"...conduct yourselves in a way worthy of the Gospel of Christ." (Philippians 1:27a)

Today we hear the parable of the landowner hiring laborers for the vineyard. Beginning early in the day the landowner goes out to hire laborers and continues to hire more at times throughout the day. At the end of the day the landowner pays them all the same - a full day's wage. Those hired early feel cheated because the ones who worked only an hour or two got the same pay. Though they were not cheated - they received a full day's wage - they feel cheated because some worked less yet got the same wage.

It's easy to go there when we perceive we are being treated unfairly - perhaps LESS fairly is more accurate. But how fairly was Jesus treated when he took my place - and your place - on the cross and suffered a humiliating death. He did not deserve to keep the sentence away from us! Thank God that He does not judge by our standards of a "fair wage". His Grace is WAY more than we deserve, but exactly what He offers to each of us.

Weekly reflections by parishioner Jon Hickman.

Priesthood Sunday

Today we honor our priests who serve Holy Name of Jesus Catholic Community and we pray for priests everywhere.

The Serra Club will hand out prayer cards after Masses this weekend. Please pray for our priests.

Prayer for Priests

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the Sacraments. Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your divine grace. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest. Amen.
