Relics of Three Saints

By Fr. Wratkowski

I have exciting news to share: The major relics of Saint Thérèse and her saint parents, Saints Louis and Zélie Martin, are traveling all the way from their native France to the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis. Included in their journey will be a stop at Saint Therese Church in Deephaven, just 15 minutes south of us, from Oct. 12-15. Visiting their relics is an opportunity you do not want to miss!

A relic is a piece of a saint: either a bone, lock of hair, body part or some of their clothing. We as Catholics honor or venerate relics of saints because they remind us that the saints were human, just as we are, and they are in Heaven, just like we can be.

We see this practice in Scripture. God performed a miracle through the bones of Elisha (2 Kings 13:20-21). The sick were healed when Peter's shadow passed over them (Acts 5:14-16). People touched cloths to Paul's hands and laid them on the sick and they were healed (Acts 19:11-12). It is not to say that relics contain magic or that relics themselves heal, only God heals. God recognizes that we are spiritual and material beings, and so God oftentimes employs physical objects as an opportunity for us to experience and receive His grace.

Many people have been encouraged in their own faith journey by the three saints. Whether it is the inviting "little way" of Saint Thérèse or the virtuous example of Louis and Zélie as a married couple working to raise a family, there is something of the lives of these saints to inspire each one of us.

For more information about the events at Saint Therese parish or about the saints themselves, please visit www.st-therese.org/st-therese-relics. I would like to highlight that Fr. Rocky is bringing his show Rosary Across America on Friday, Oct. 13, at 7 p.m., and Archbishop Hebda will celebrate Mass following the Rosary.

Give some time to honor these saints by visiting them and asking for their intercession. Give them the opportunity to let them become your spiritual friends.

Are you interested in becoming an altar server? Come to our altar server training Monday, Oct. 9, at 6 p.m. in the church. This training is open to Catholics 4th grade to high school seniors.

"Therefore, in the liturgy, you are much more than simple 'helpers of the parish priest'. Above all, you are servers of Jesus Christ, of the eternal High Priest." Pope John Paul II, Address at the General Audience, Aug. 1, 2001

Women's Drop-in Social, Oct. 12

Are you interested in ways to give back to the Holy Name of Jesus parish and community? Come to the social to enjoy beverages and appetizers and hear about the activities of the KC Auxiliary, a women's group open to all women of the parish. Examples of our activities include running the Country Market at the Fall Festival, bake sales to support women's and children's charities and Interfaith Outreach birthday shelf.

Members and parishioners are welcome to participate in our activities at the level their schedule dictates. We also have socials and outings to build our female fellowship. No RSVP needed. Please feel free to drop in when you can on Thursday, Oct. 12, from 7-8:30 p.m. Questions? Contact Mary Jo Zidwick at mjzidwick@gmail.com or 612-669-2099. ## Mass of Remembrance, Nov. 2

Please join us to recognize the recently deceased in our faith community, and to honor all of our dead at the Mass of Remembrance on Thursday, Nov. 2, at 6:30 p.m. The Mass is open to all, but we particularly welcome those who have lost a loved one during the past year, as well as those who have lost a loved one at any time, including children lost through miscarriage, stillbirth or abortion. All are welcome. Hospitality to follow.

Cemetery Clean Up: Please have Items Removed by Oct. 29

We will be doing a fall clean-up of the cemetery in early November, so please remove any items of value by Oct. 29. Winter wreaths may be put on graves after Nov. 12. Thank you for helping us to be good stewards in the care of the final resting place of our deceased loved ones.

Big Small Dinner, Oct. 13

Sometimes it's difficult to make connections at a church as large as Holy Name of Jesus. That's why we are hosting the Big Small Dinner on Friday, Oct. 13, at Holy Name of Jesus. It's a chance to make small connections at a big church. This event is geared toward all new parishioners as well as those who want to get more connected. We provide dinner and both nursery-age and school-age care as well as dinner for the kids.

Contact Tim Lyngdal with questions at tlyngdal@hnoj.org. More information and registration at www.hnoj.org/bigsmalldinner.

Special Needs Faith Sharing

Registration is now open for the 2023-2024 Special Needs Monthly Faith Sharing. The monthly sessions take place September - May on the third Sunday of each month from 9:30-10:20 a.m. in Emmaus A. Sessions consist of prayer, discussion, scripture and an activity related to the lesson or the season. There is no cost to participate. Our next meeting is Sunday, Oct. 15.

Special Needs Faith Sharing is open to individuals of all ages and abilities. Lessons will be differentiated and adapted to individual unique needs. To register a participant, email Tom Silver at silvertom1948@yahoo.com or call the church office.

More information is available at www.hnoj.org/special-needs-ministry or contact Deacon Dennis at the church office.

Scripture of the Week

"Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will keep your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus." (Philippians 4:6-7)

Today our First Reading from Isaiah, our Psalm and our Gospel reading from Matthew all speak of vineyards. The allegory is quite simple, Israel (in the First Reading and Psalm), is God's vineyard. Jesus's parable extends the vineyard to all who belong to Him. We all become vines grafted onto the true vine who is Jesus Himself.

Struggles will come and it can be hard at times to quiet the noise and stay rooted in Christ. How can we persevere? St. Paul shows us the way in our Second Reading - "Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, do; and the God of peace will be with you."

Weekly reflections by parishioner Jon Hickman.

Stewardship Invitation, Oct. 14-15

Next weekend is Stewardship Invitation Weekend. Your household should have received a stewardship packet encouraging you to consider your commitment of prayer, participation and generosity.

Please take time this week to think about how you have been called to belong. How can you use your abilities to serve the ministries and activities at Holy Name of Jesus? What contribution, large or small, can you offer financially? How can you share your skills with the parish? God has given us so much; let us give thanks by being good stewards of all that we have received.

Please return your Commitment Form next week for our invitation weekend. We are encouraging everyone to fill out the form and would like to have 100% participation.

Or you may go online to hnoj.org/stewardship2023 to fill out an online form.

Interfaith Outreach™
Igniting the power of community

Interfaith Outreach Items Needed

In addition to food, toiletry and household donations, IOCP is currently in need of paper grocery bags. These are expensive to purchase and offer you an opportunity to recycle the bags you don't need. Thank you!

- Feminine hygiene products
- Pull-Ups, size 4T-5T
- Brand name cereals
- Canned meat (chicken, tuna)
- Healthy snacks

Learn more about our Food Shelf "SuperShelf" at iocp.org/outreach-services/food-shelf.

Maintenance and Custodial Worker Needed

We are hiring a Maintenance and Custodial Worker for the church and school facilities. The work hours are 6 a.m.-2 p.m. Full details may be found at www.hnoj.org/careers. Please help spread the word!

Attention: Advertise in the Bulletin

Gina Shaughnessy, our parish representative from LPi, is setting up the advertising for our weekly bulletin. We hope that parishioners who have a business will consider sponsoring an ad, since the revenue from the ads is what makes the bulletin possible, at no cost to the parish. Also, if you know of any other business in the community that would like to support the parish, please let them know about this opportunity.

Advertisements can be purchased for a business, family or a sponsorship ad can be purchased supporting community service organizations such as emergency pregnancy counseling, the local food shelf, etc. Please give these ideas some thought. We need and appreciate your help!

If you are interested in getting more information, please call Gina Shaughnessy at 952-356-6488.

Encountering God in the Mass, Oct. 11

The fullness of God's power and presence is available to us at every Mass. Come and learn how to receive what God longs for us to experience. Be inspired and transformed!

Dr. James Pauley currently serves on the U.S. Catholic Conference of Bishops' executive team. He is a respected author and Professor of Theology and Catechetics at Franciscan University of Steubenville.

Please join us on Wednesday, Oct. 11, at 7 p.m., at St. Bart's in Wayzata. More information at www.st-barts.org.
