Stewardship Invitation This Weekend

"Know that the Lord is God, he made us, we belong to him, we are his people, the flock he shepherds." Psalm 100:3

At Holy Name of Jesus, you are called to belong. Stewardship is a faith response to God's love and His purpose for you. God blessed you with talents, skills and strengths. As you recognize all you have been given, seek to share it with others through these efforts:

Prayer - attend Mass, pray regularly and gather as sheep that belong to Him and who listen to His voice.

Participation - believe in God, in Jesus and in the Holy Spirit and follow Him by participating in the mission and ministry of the Church.

Generosity - be disciples by generously committing your gifts to support the mission, ministries and services of our faith community.

Your participation and generosity are critical to our day-to-day operations and programming. Should your circumstances allow, please prayerfully consider an increase for calendar year 2024 to support the ministries and services of Holy Name of Jesus. As costs have been rising in all areas, expenses are projected to increase by 6.6% compared to the prior year.

If you didn't bring your Commitment Form this week, then you can drop it in the mail or bring it to church next weekend. We are encouraging everyone to fill out the form and would like to have 100% participation. You may go online to hnoj.org/stewardship2023 to fill out an online form. If you would like to set up a weekly or monthly recurring donation through our online giving platform, you can find information at hnoj.org/give.

Thank you for sharing your gifts!

Scripture of the Week

*"I know how to live in humble circumstances; I know also how to live with abundance."
(Philippians 4:12)*

Many of us struggle with living out the opening phrase of today's Second Reading. St. Paul says he knows how to live with little and also how to live with plenty. Our modern world offers so much plenty, from foods to entertainment to transportation to arts to scientific breakthroughs to "stuff" of all sorts. And yet, some struggle to find enough basics to live day-to-day while others are burdened with trying to ignore the over-abundance of stimulation of the senses that makes up 21st Century America.

And amid this on-going struggle in a post-pandemic world, we see so many things that have changed. Businesses struggle to find workers as many people step out of the workforce, offices and classrooms become virtual - often leading to a sense of disconnection and so much more. Everything we knew has changed. Or has it? God is still God and His truth is still Truth. If we relied on Him before, then we still find strength in Him today. If we did not, there is still time to run into His arms. Because in our Second Reading, St. Paul also says, "I can do all things in him who strengthens me." And that makes all the difference.

Weekly reflections by parishioner Jon Hickman.

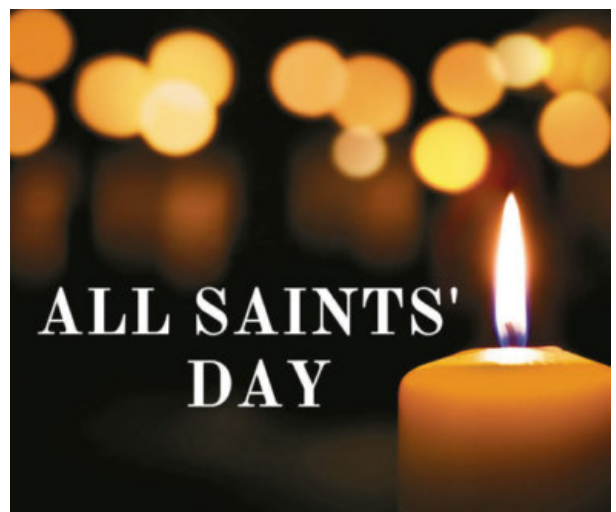

All Saints' Day, Nov. 1

We celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints on Wednesday, Nov. 1, where we honor all of the holy men and women who have gone before us and ask for their intercession.

Masses for this Holy Day of Obligation are as follows:

6:30 a.m.
8 a.m.
9:15 a.m.
6 p.m.

Please note the first Mass on Nov. 1 is at 6:30 a.m. and not 6 a.m. as we had listed in the October newsletter.*

News from the Knights of Columbus

We are into our new fiscal year of activities as Knights. Breakfasts, social get togethers and special events are here and available for all Knights, their families and non-Knights. All of these will be posted on our website: www.hnojkc.com. This website is open to all, and everyone is cordially invited to check it out.

We are welcoming new members and ideas for ways we may be of service to others, in service to all. This past week we welcomed two new members to our Council: Patrick Johnson and Rob Schochow. Our Grand Knight, Tom Murphy, is looking to make our organization a diverse brotherhood of Catholic men and families who are looking to share their faith through our service to the parish and community.

Please put on your calendar our next breakfast for support of the HNOJ kitchen expenses, Nov. 12. All breakfasts are a free-will offering and all are welcome.

Your brother in faith and service,
Eugene Dust pGK
