Paying Attention to the Particulars

By Fr. Mike Reinhardt

We know relatively little about the Gospel writer Luke, whose feast we celebrated on Oct. 18. But we do know that he was a doctor and a layman, and that his yes to Jesus as a lay person had an enormous impact on the world.

It is only in his Gospel that we hear of Jesus being wrapped in swaddling clothes and laid in a manger. Thanks only to Luke, we have our manger scenes and creches. It is only in his Gospel that we have the angel Gabriel's extraordinary greeting to Mary and her beautiful response, the Magnificat. Thanks only to Luke, we have the words of the Hail Mary.

Those details in his writings which can be verified have been. He has a reputation of a historian of the first rank. Luke dedicated his Gospel to his friend Theophilus and wrote the Acts of the Apostles as a letter to Theophilus. We also know from Paul's letter to Timothy that Luke alone remained with Paul when Paul was imprisoned.

In all these details we can see a pattern: Luke paid attention to the particulars. He paid attention to the details of the life of Christ and of the early Church, and shared them with a particular friend. Luke was in a particular place with Paul, and saw a need to accompany Paul while he was in prison. He did so. It is this attentiveness that Luke had to the particulars that I want to call your attention to and to emulate.

It is in the particular details of our lives that God speaks to us. God calls us in to a particular vocation. He calls us to that vocation and He calls us as particular sons and daughters in that vocation. He plants us in a particular spot to be workers in the vineyard there, to minister to those He places in our lives, whether it is family and friends or a particular person at a chance encounter in the grocery store. God didn't make us generic characters in someone else's story and He doesn't make others generic characters in our story. He made us particular people and He puts particular people in our lives. As we pay attention to the particulars, to the unique and unrepeatable time and place He has planted us, we see His invitation, His call. God invites each of us to respond in a particular way. It is in this way that He allows us to be co-workers in the vineyard and co-creators of the kingdom of God.

May we learn from Luke's example, and pay attention to the particulars. May we pay attention to where we are placed and whom we are placed with. May each of us live out the particular call God has given us.

Scripture of the Week

*"The Lord lives and blessed be my rock!"
(Psalm 18:47a)*

Today's Gospel is another story of how the holy men of Jesus's time tried to trip Him up. By the time of Jesus, the original Ten Commandments had been joined by hundreds of rabbinical "laws" that Jewish believers were expected to follow. Strict religious rulers - such as the Pharisees - demanded that each law be followed to the fullest, any transgression was to be followed by swift punishment. In this story they are trying to trick Him into leaving something out.

Tradition has it that two tablets containing the Ten Commandments were given by God to Moses. The first had three concerning the love of God while the second contained seven that had to do with love of neighbor. Jesus's reply today sums up the three commandments from the first tablet into one - "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind" and the seven from the second tablet into another - "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." And for good measure ends with, "The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments." Game, set and match.

Interfaith Outreach Second Collection, Nov. 4-5

It's time once again to renew our focus on caring for the "least" of our brothers and sisters, right here in our own community. Interfaith's annual Sleep Out will take place from Nov. 14 to Dec. 11, to raise awareness and funds.

Holy Name of Jesus will take up a second collection for Interfaith Outreach next weekend, Nov. 4-5, to support their efforts. Please write checks out to HNOJ with IOCP in the memo. You can go to hnoj.org/interfaith2ndcollection to learn more and make an online donation. You can use the QR code to learn more.

If you and your family have been blessed, please consider sharing those blessings with the poor and homeless among us. After all, as Jesus says in that passage from Matthew: "...whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me."

In Our Parish and Our Community

Stewardship: Called to Belong

Thank you to everyone who has already turned in their stewardship Commitment Form! Thank you for sharing your gifts!

We are encouraging 100% participation. If you haven't turned yours in yet, you may bring it to Mass or mail it in to the church office. Or you may go online to hnoj.org/stewardship2023 to fill out an online form. If you would like to set up a weekly or monthly recurring donation through our online giving platform, you can find information at hnoj.org/give.

KC Auxiliary Bake Sale, Nov. 11-12

You'll need some baked goods and snacks to enjoy during the upcoming holiday. The whole family is coming hungry! Stop by our bake sale and stock up on delicious treats for the entire holiday season. Many items freeze well for enjoyment in weeks to come, too. Plan to join us after any of the Masses, Nov. 11-12. The KC's pancake breakfast will be after the Sunday morning Masses that weekend too.

The KC Auxiliary has planned this event to raise funds for the IOCP food shelf. Families who shop at the food shelf are getting ready to celebrate Thanksgiving, too, so the need is great at this time of year. Donations of baked goods for the bake sale are also welcome if you have a specialty you would like to share.

Make a family happy this holiday season and get Thanksgiving goodies too!

Questions? Contact Karen Karn at kekarn@comcast.net or 612-709-8412.

Christmas Giving, Nov. 4-15

Please save the date for our Operation Christmas Child party which takes place on Wednesday, Nov. 15, from 5-7 p.m. (with Fine Dining). For more information, please direct questions to Annie LaPlante at alaplante@hnoj.org.

News for Seniors

Seniors (55+) please join us for our Nov. 10 event. Plus, we need your help with cleaning the church.

Sign Up to Clean the Church

Due to custodian shortage, the church needs our help! Please sign up at the welcome desk if you can donate two hours of your time on either Monday or Friday mornings (we can make a rotating schedule). Cleaning will involve dusting, wiping pews, putting gather books back in place, etc. No vacuuming or mopping! This is a great opportunity to pray the Rosary or get some quiet prayer time in while you work.

Thankful for Medicare on Friday, Nov. 10, at 10:30 a.m. We'll hear a presentation by Amy Dahlquist about Medicare 2024, receive some great information and be able to ask questions. We'll also have an opportunity to get to know our new business administrator, Janna Webskowski, as she shares about herself after the presentation.

We'll offer a Mexican lunch for $8. Please sign up at the welcome desk. (Don't forget your blankets, sheets, towels, etc. for Mary's Place).
