The Most Important Miracle

By Fr. Mike Reinhardt

One of the most memorable episodes in Jesus' ministry is the healing of the paralytic. Four buddies bring their paralyzed friend to Jesus. The crowd was so great that they couldn't reach Jesus, so they opened a hole in the roof and let him down that way. That's bold! Jesus sees their faith, and forgives the paralytic's sins. Then He says those memorable words, "So that you know that the Son of Man has authority to forgive sins, I say to you rise, take up your pallet, and go home."

Notice that Jesus is performing the most important work first. First He forgives the paralytic, and then He heals him. Most of us see the healing miracle and think that is more important (or at least more impressive) than God's forgiveness.

A lady came up to me after Mass to introduce herself. She said that she had been sick for a while and had asked Fr. Wratkowski to pray for her, and he prayed and she was healed. Praise God! That is no small thing. But it is a smaller thing than what happens in the confessional. God forgiving us our sins is a greater miracle than any healing miracle. Nevertheless, I have never had anyone come up to me to introduce themselves, and say, "Guess what! My sins were forgiven me." This woman, I suspect, is like each of us. Through my human perspective, I get more excited about the whiz-bang miracles. I suspect most of us are like that.

I remember hearing with pleasure and excitement about the young lady whose blindness was healed at World Youth Day this summer. That is the sort of thing that understandably attracts our attention and excitement. But that isn't where the real action happens. That isn't the most important stuff. The miracle of forgiveness that happens in the confessional is, properly understood, greater than any miracle of bodily healing. The miracle of Jesus coming to us in the flesh in the Eucharist is greater still. But there is no whiz-bang factor there, and so our human perspective gets it backwards. We tend to unthinkingly rank the flashy miracles as more important than the quiet miracles God offers us through the Sacraments.

Jesus purifies our vision. He shows us how God sees. Jesus performed the most important miracle first. Until our awe at the altar and in the confessional exceeds our awe at seeing someone whose paralysis was healed, or even someone raised from the dead, we are not yet seeing as God sees.

Baking for Babies, Pro-Life Cinnamon Roll Sale This Weekend

A Community Caring for Life (ACCL) is hosting Baking for Babies Pro-Life Cinnamon Roll Bake and Sale event this weekend, Jan. 19-21. This will be the 32nd year the ACCL has put on this event.

Make sure to stop by hospitality after the Sunday morning Masses for cinnamon rolls in place of donuts!

The ACCL committee will give the money raised from our Baking for Babies event to both national organizations and local pregnancy centers who offer free pregnancy testing, ultrasounds, education, counseling and supplies for mothers to make that life choice an easier one. Cost of the rolls is a free-will donation.

We look forward to having parish members come together for a great cause. Any further questions can be directed to Melisa Eckert eckertmelis@gmail.com or Angie Paske angie.paske@gmail.com.

Family Retreat: Winter Weekend Registration Closing Soon!

At HNOJ we believe that in the midst of our busy and demanding lives, it is essential to take a break, step away and make room for God to move powerfully in our lives.

And what better way to do this than as a family! HNOJ's eighth Winter Weekend will be held in February! We will have music, games, VBS style sessions for the kids, talks and small groups for the adults, Mass, dinner and Eucharistic Adoration. Families with kids of all ages are welcome to attend. We encourage teenagers to sign up to help out with the younger kiddos, but any confirmed teen may join the adult sessions as well.

Lenten Small Groups

All parishioners are invited to sign up for a six-week Lenten Small Group that will begin the week of Feb. 11.

Under the direction of Fr. Wratkowski, we have decided to study a curriculum based on "The Ruthless Elimination of Hurry" by John Mark Comer. This book is a teaching moment on how to reclaim what has been stolen from our lives by excessive technology use, busy-ness, the grind, the hustle, you name it. God wants our whole hearts and wants us to flourish rather than just "grind" away at the duties and tasks of life. (You don't even have to read the book to be in a small group).

Please join us on this Lenten journey. If you have questions or want to sign up, email Tim Lyngdal at tlyngdal@hnoj.org or visit our website's Lenten Small Group page at www.hnoj.org/lentensmallgroups where you can view small group descriptions and times. Or use the QR code to find a group.

What is Winter Faith Camp? It's everything that you love about camp... but in the winter! Our high school youth will be heading to Camp Courage to fortify their faith in a new way. This year's theme is Memento Mori which is Latin for "remember your death"; an appropriate theme to reflect on during the first week of Lent.

This camp is open to all 9th-12th graders at Holy Name of Jesus and is intended for youth who are looking to deepen their understanding of the faith and to be reignited in their relationship with Jesus.

Scripture of the Week

"Jesus said to them, 'Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.'"
(Mark 1:17)

Jonah's ministry to the people of Nineveh is our First Reading today. Jonah famously was called but ran away to avoid having to answer the call. Although not related in today's passage, we are familiar with the story of him being swallowed by a "great fish" where he spent three days and nights before being regurgitated on dry land where he then listened to the call of God and headed into Nineveh.

Our Gospel is Mark's version of the calling of the first disciples. In both stories we readily focus on the call from God or Jesus and the decision of the ones called to follow. And then Mark 1:18 says: "Then they abandoned their nets..." Jonah, too, abandoned something to finally follow. In fact, every day every single one of us will abandon something to choose something else. It might be as simple as which book to read, which TV show to stream or what to make for dinner. Or it might be more profound if we allow it to be. Can we challenge ourselves to abandon something for Jesus? Can we challenge ourselves to abandon everything for Him?

The Respect Life Mass will be at 10:30 a.m. on Monday, Jan. 22, at the Cathedral of St. Paul. It is also an opportunity to recognize those who exemplify pro-life work in our local communities with the Saint John Paul II Champion for Life Award.

The March for Life is organized by Minnesota Concerned Citizens for Life (MCCL) and will take place at the State Capitol in St. Paul at 12 p.m. on Jan. 22.

We are always welcoming new and inactive brothers to join us to become a greater 'band of brothers'.

Watch for upcoming meetings and events on our website: www.hnojkc.com. Special prayers and reach out to our Grand Knight, Tom Murphy, in his current battle are being requested.

Your humble servant,
