Cana Dinner, Feb. 3

At the Cana Dinner we celebrate marriage and lift up the good news about being married.

Join other couples at our annual Cana Dinner. We will have a social hour (wine, craft beer, snacks), plated dinner and a witness talk from an HNOJ couple about marriage. Couples will remember their vows and receive a blessing from our pastors.

The Cana Dinner is one of the premier events of the year at HNOJ and a fantastic night to spend time with your spouse amongst other HNOJ couples. All ages/stages of married couples attend the Cana Dinner: newly married, couples with young kids, school and faith formation parents, empty nesters and seniors.
Engaged and newly married couples can attend for free!

Cana Dinner Speakers:

Nathan and Heather Maehren will give the Cana Dinner witness talk this year. We are excited to have such an amazing couple share their story with us.
Nathan and Heather have three wonderful children who attend HNOJ School. Their Catholic faith is evident in their everyday family life and in their marriage. We are all in for a treat in listening to the Maehren's share with us.

Details

When: Saturday, Feb.3, 6-10 p.m.

Where: HNOJ, following the 5 p.m. Mass

What: A night to celebrate your marriage with your spouse and others; speakers, blessing, remembering vows and fellowship

Speakers: Nathan and Heather Maehren

Who: Married couples, engaged couples and widows/widowers

Cost: $65 a couple

No Childcare: We do not offer childcare for the Cana Dinner because the dinner runs so late (10 p.m.). Typically we've found that families rather have their littles tucked into bed before that and don't utilize childcare at HNOJ.

Registration: hnoj.org/cana

Lenten Small Groups

All parishioners are invited to sign up for a six-week Lenten Small Group that will begin the week of Feb. 11.

Under the direction of Fr. Wratkowski, we have decided to study a curriculum based on "The Ruthless Elimination of Hurry" by John Mark Comer. This book is a teaching moment on how to reclaim what has been stolen from our lives by excessive technology use, busy-ness, the grind, the hustle, you name it. God wants our whole hearts and wants us to flourish rather than just "grind" away at the duties and tasks of life. (You don't even have to read the book to be in a small group).

Please join us on this Lenten journey. If you have questions or want to sign up, email Tim Lyngdal at tlyngdal@hnoj.org or visit our website's Lenten Small Group page at www.hnoj.org/lentensmallgroups where you can view small group descriptions and times. Or use the QR code to find a group.

This year, we have two featured speakers, Annie Grandell and Sister Amelia, O.P.

Catholic Schools Week, Jan. 28-Feb. 2

This week we celebrate Catholic Schools Week! At the Sunday Masses this weekend, you will see our HNOJ School students as greeters, gift bearers and serving hospitality.

It's a special week at HNOJ School as our students participate in an IOCP service project, the 4th-6th graders attend the Mass of the Holy Spirit with Archbishop Hebda and all the classrooms find ways to show their school spirit all week long. We are thankful for our Catholic school!

Thank You, Dr. Owen

Holy Name of Jesus would like to thank Dr. Richard Owen for serving as Music Director. In just a year and a half, Dr. Owen has made significant contributions to Holy Name of Jesus' music program sharing his incredible gifts, building up the choir and instilling deep appreciation for liturgical music in the ministry program.

Dr. Owen is moving to Louisiana. While we are sad to see him go, we are happy that he will be closer to family. His last day will be Feb. 8.

Scripture of the Week

*"The people were astonished at His teaching, for He taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes."
(Mark 1:22)*

It is the Sabbath and Jesus is exactly where a devout Jewish man should be, in the synagogue. And, as He does so well, Jesus is teaching those who have gathered. We enter the story as He has wrapped up His teaching and the people gathered know they are hearing something out of the ordinary - "having authority and not as the scribes."

Their world is about to get shaken even further when a man with an "unclean spirit" reacts to Jesus's teaching and cries out "I know who you are - the Holy One of God!" Jesus responds by calling the unclean spirit out of the man, and the spirit does as Jesus commands. The people gathered are amazed that the unclean spirit obeys Jesus. But they need not be amazed; the unclean spirit itself announced exactly who Jesus is - "the Holy One of God." Can we hear that proclamation and believe?

Weekly reflections by parishioner Jon Hickman.
