Come to the Feast

By Fr. Mike Reinhardt

I had a heart-warming encounter after Mass this past Friday, Feb. 2, which was the Feast of the Presentation, where we celebrate the infant Jesus being presented to Simeon in the temple. It is one of those feast days where there is a bit more going on with a procession, a gloria, a second reading and, only on this day, a blessing of candles.

A man named Bill came up after Mass to ask if it was a Holy Day of Obligation. He was concerned that it might have been, explaining that his friend had missed Mass that morning because his friend's sister was visiting from out of town and they had stayed up late. I was touched by his concern for his friend. I was even more touched by his reason for having to ask. He said he had been a daily Mass-goer for many years now, and so the obligation of the Holy Days didn't get on his radar because it didn't make any difference to him. He would be at Mass every day anyways.

Bill shared the story of how he came to be a daily Mass-goer. His wife was diagnosed with cancer, and she prayed, asking to be cured from the cancer and promising God to go to Mass every day if she was cured. Bill prayed as well, offering to the Lord to go to Mass every day no matter what happened. She passed, and Bill kept on going to Mass. After about a year, he realized that he wasn't going to Mass simply because of his promise to God. He was going because he wanted to, because he was being fed. He said (and I love this) that he no longer understands why so many people go only on Sundays. He thinks that they are putting themselves on a diet!

I think he is exactly right! We all have certain places and times in our lives of giving generously, and how in those times and places, we have the experience of generous living. Conversely, we also have those times and places in our lives where we do the bare minimum (or not even that), and we have the experience of grudging living.

How much more true is this in our life of God! God, in His inner life, lives generously, the Father giving His all to the Son and the Spirit. The Son giving His all to the Father and the Spirit. And the Spirit giving His all to the Father and the Son. As we give more and more to Him, we draw closer and closer to Him because we are living more and more like Him.

Come! All you who are thirsty, come to the waters! Without money and without cost, come to the Feast!

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

At Holy Name of Jesus, we offer Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays from 8:30 a.m.-9 p.m.

God wants to be close to us. The Eucharist is the miracle of this closeness in our lives. The goal of Adoration is to help us appreciate this miracle in a deeper way, so that we enter more deeply into the wonder of the Mass and allow it to transform our lives.

One great way to get more out of Lent is to pray a Holy Hour! Even if you can't commit to being on the schedule, feel free to stop by Mondays, Tuesday and Thursdays during office hours and use the main front entrance.

For questions or to sign up for a scheduled hour each week, please go online to hnoj.org/adoration or contact Fr. Mike at frmike.reinhardt@hnoj.org.

February Senior Event

Seniors (55+) please join us for our upcoming events:

Sign up at the welcome desk in the Gathering Space.

Call Karen Hayes with any questions at 763-476-8921.

Scripture of the Week

"Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God." (1Cor 10:31)

Today's First Reading and Gospel focus on the disease of leprosy. In the First Reading we hear of the Levitical laws concerning lepers and, in the Gospel, we see the mercy of Jesus as He heals a leper. The Levitical laws were concerned with things that rendered a person "unclean" and also how to restore a person to being "clean". This notion of clean and unclean had to do with a person's ability to interact with the community. For the most part these terms dealt with ritualistic purity, not moral purity.

In the Gospel we see more of what we would recognize as a sacramental quality as Jesus stretches out His arm and hand over the leper. Yes, restoration of the Jewish notion of "unclean" happened as the leper was physically healed. But how much more did that restoration heal when the leper was restored to participation in the community? This parallels our Sacrament of Reconciliation by which we are restored to full participation in our community so that, as Paul says in his letter to the Corinthians today, in little things ("eat or drink") or greater things ("whatever you do") we always return the glory to God.
