Alleluia! He Is Risen!

by Fr. Tim Wratkowski

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

*The strife is o'er, the battle done;
the victory of life is won;
the song of triumph has begun.
Alleluia!*

This is the first verse of a beautiful Easter hymn, one worth pondering as we begin the celebration of the Lord's Resurrection.
Finishing the Lenten season where we even fasted from the joyful
"Alleluia", we now have many a jubilant "Alleluia" bursting forth in the Easter Season.

However, it is not only the joy of these cries of "Alleluia!" that gets our attention. It is also the conviction that the strife is over. There has been a final outcome in the battle between good and evil, between light and darkness, between the all-Loving God who conquers and the powers of hell which now vanquished lie.

Yet, as the echoes of the alleluias subside in the days ahead, we can be tempted to allow the joy that we carry within our hearts to subside also. Why? While the ultimate battle is won with Christ's victorious Resurrection, the devil in response, knowing that his time is short, musters all the forces of darkness to engage in the small skirmishes for individual souls. Thus, we can become discouraged when we see injustice in the world, when we see evil rearing its ugly head again and again. This can become discouraging, and the temptation to doubt the reality and power of Jesus's definitive victory can present itself very strongly.

When we continue to encounter evil in the world, we would do well to remember: Jesus is alive! He is risen! And He promises eternal life for those who believe in Him and live in Him. Jesus has already won, and the devil is a sore loser. Whatever evil we encounter in the world, it cannot rob us of our Easter joy, because in Jesus:

*The strife is o'er, the battle done;
the victory of life is won;
the song of triumph has begun.
Alleluia!*

Divine Mercy Sunday, April 7

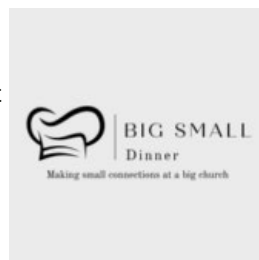

From Saint Faustina's diary: "Jesus said to me, Paint an image according to the pattern you see, with the signature: Jesus, I trust in You. I desire that this image be venerated, first in your chapel, and then throughout the world... I desire that there be a Feast of Mercy. I want this image to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter; that Sunday is to be the Feast of Mercy." (Diary of Saint Faustina, Notebook 1, paragraphs 47 and 49).

At HNOJ there will be a Divine Mercy Chaplet prayed after all of the Sunday Masses on April 7. This prayer is spoken, and prayed using an ordinary Rosary. This prayer contains the repetition of praying the phrase, "For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world."

God Our Father desires to renew marriage through the power of the Holy Spirit. Let Him begin with yours!

Scripture of the Week

"On entering the tomb they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a white robe, and they were utterly amazed. He said to them, Do not be amazed! You seek Jesus of Nazareth, the crucified. He has been raised, He is not here." (Mark 16:5-6 - Gospel Reading for the Easter Vigil)

He is Risen! He is Risen, indeed! Lord, give me the faith to live this Truth each and every day!!!

Weekly reflections by parishioner Jon Hickman.
