The Many Titles for Jesus

By Fr. Mike Reinhardt

I began my homily this past “Good Shepherd” Sunday by reciting a lot of the names and titles that Jesus is given in the Gospel of John. He has other names and titles from other books of Scripture and from tradition, but there is a surprisingly long list from the Gospel of John itself. Why so many?

One reason is prophecy. The Jewish prophets saw, as in a mirror, darkly. The prophets spoke of a suffering servant, a savior born of a virgin, a son of David, a high priest. Jesus fulfilled countless prophecies, most in an unlooked-for way.

Another reason is the richness and weightiness of who Jesus is. He is King and Judge. He is the Good Shepherd and the Rock. The only Begotten Son and the Lord of Lords. Jesus is much more than we can comprehend, and one whom we can only partially apprehend. Each name and each title reveals a facet of who He is. As we meditate and pray on these names and titles we can receive a bit more of who He is.

But a Christian is other than one who is an expert on who He is. A Christian does not merely or necessarily know a lot about Him, but is in relationship with Him. These names and titles can suggest to us some of the myriad ways in which we can respond to Him.

Emmanuel – God With Us. God is, as articulated by one divine attribute, omnipresent. Everywhere. Always with us. And yet, God does not impose Himself on us. That which we want to veil from Him, He respects. And yet to allow Him in gives our lives meaning and direction. To meditate on Jesus as Emmanuel is to invite the response, “Come, Lord Jesus.” “Please be with me even in this part of my life.” Emmanuel.

Wonderful Counselor. This name of Jesus invites us to ask for counsel. “What should I do? What would you have me do?” To meditate on “Wonderful Counselor” we ask Jesus not to just to let us live our lives according to our own preferences, for we quickly realize that Jesus knows best. When we ask Him for advice, for counsel, for direction – and listen – we find ourselves on a road far better (even as it convicts us) than we could have built for ourselves.

Good Shepherd. I know mine and mine know me. Knowing Jesus as Good Shepherd is to learn the voice of our shepherd – to learn to hear it and to follow it. It is very nearly not overstating it to say that all of our practices – our rules and our learned responses – are directed towards helping us hear and respond to His voice, individually and as a community. As a flock, all we need is to know Him as He shepherds us.

These are but three of a hundred or more names and titles that we can find for Jesus in the Bible or in tradition. As you pray with each, ask yourself: what particular response from me should this name elicit? Ask, and let your answer guide you.

Summer Book Groups

Summer Book Groups at HNOJ are back! A Good Summer Read continues this summer with two fantastic Catholic fiction classics. Register today for either (or both!) of these great summer book groups and dig into Catholic fictions you won't soon forget.

See you in the pages of a new favorite book!

Morning Group

Father Elijah: An Apocalypse
By Michael D. O'Brien

Michael O'Brien presents a thrilling apocalyptic novel about the condition of the Roman Catholic Church at the end of time. It explores the state of the modern world, and the strengths and weaknesses of the contemporary religious scene, by taking his central character, Father Elijah Schafer, a Carmelite priest, on a secret mission for the Vatican which embroils him in a series of crises and subterfuges affecting the ultimate destiny of the Church.

In this richly textured tale, Father Elijah crosses Europe and the Middle East, moves through the echelons of world power, meets saints and sinners, presidents, judges, mystics, embattled Catholic journalists, faithful priests and a conspiracy of traitors within the very House of God. This is an apocalypse in the old literary sense, but one that was written in the light of Christian revelation.

Evening Group

Helena
By Evelyn Waugh

Helena is the intelligent, horse-mad daughter of a British chieftain who is thrown into marriage with the man who will one day become the Roman emperor Constantius. Leaving home for lands unknown, she spends her adulthood seeking truth in the religions, mythologies and philosophies of the declining ancient world, and becomes initiated into Christianity just as it is recognized as the religion of the Roman Empire. Helena - a novel that Evelyn Waugh considered to be his favorite, and most ambitious, work - deftly traverses the forces of corruption, treachery, enlightenment and political intrigue of Imperial Rome as it brings to life an inspiring heroine.

Welcome Our New Music Director

Thank you for all your prayers and support in our search for a new music director. With the work of our search committee concluded, we are pleased to announce that Kraig Windschitl will join HNOJ as Director of Sacred Music starting July 1. Kraig comes with many skills and talents, along with a desire to immerse himself in our wonderful Catholic community.

To say a little more about him: Kraig Windschitl is a native of New Ulm, MN, where his love of sacred music was instilled at an early age. Kraig was Baptized and Confirmed at the Cathedral of the Holy Trinity, where his mother was director of music/liturgy. Post high school graduation from the Perpich Center for Arts, Kraig attended Saint John's University, where he double majored in systematic theology and liturgical music. While at St John's, Kraig studied organ with Kim Kasling, Sr. Dolores Super and choral conducting with Axel Theimer and Richard Proulx. Post completion of the Master of Sacred Music at Indiana University, Kraig served various congregations in the Twin Cities, including Mount Olivet and Saint Philip the Deacon. In his free time, Kraig enjoys golf, swimming, time with his extended family and certainly the Minnesota Orchestra! Kraig keeps the Benedictine Rule close in hand and heart, being a Benedictine Oblate of St John's Abbey.

As he comes on board, Kraig says, "I feel incredibly blessed to be at Holy Name of Jesus, to serve as Director of Sacred Music." We are also blessed to have him as well! Please join us in welcoming Kraig and praying for a seamless transition.

Mother's Day Rose Sale, May 11-12

Honor your mom, grandma, godmother or any other special person who has "mothered" you! A Community Caring for Life will be providing "Thanks, Mom, for Life" roses for Mother's Day at all Masses. Look for our tables outside the church entrances after Mass if the weather is fine, or in the Gathering Space if not. Cost is a free-will offering. Electronic donation available. All proceeds will go to help Rachel's Vineyard, a retreat ministry for women, or Prenatal Partners for Life, a ministry to families who receive an adverse prenatal diagnosis.

If you love flowers, maybe you'd enjoy spending a morning prepping roses for our annual Mother's Day rose sale. On Saturday, May 11, at 9 a.m., we will gather in the Good Samaritan Center at HNOJ to get the roses ready for sale. There are also opportunities to help sell after all Masses on May 11 and 12.

You may sign-up to volunteer at hnoj.org/accl. For questions, please contact Louise Magnuson at 763-202-2720.

First Friday Rosary

Scripture of the Week

"Children, let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth." (1 John 3:18)

Vine and branches. A friend has a small grape arbor in his garden. Each spring he will trim back the branches. After doing so you can easily see the trunk-like vine growing out of the ground, firmly rooted and appearing almost tree-like. From that, the branches will grow each season to bring forth the fruit.

This is such a good analogy for our lives in Christ Jesus! He is firmly rooted in the Father and extends His grace and love to each of us, the branches. This enables us to grow and flourish and bring forth good fruits. Sometimes our humanness tries to fight the process, trusting ourselves rather than Him. How quickly we can allow our desires and our plans to turn the rich fruit into sour grapes.

Ascension Outreach This Weekend

Please consider a generous contribution as we highlight our longstanding partner during Ascension Outreach Weekend. You can pick up a donation envelope in your envelope packet or in the church pew, or go to hnoj.org/ascension to give electronically. Please make checks payable to HNOJ with Ascension in the memo.
