Living a Life of Gratitude

By Fr. Mike Reinhardt

I was recently reminded of a famous study, nick-named “the nun study,” which looks at some seven hundred School Sisters of Notre Dame aged between 75 and 107. Each of the sisters writes an autobiography in her postulancy in her early 20s. The researchers had access to these early accounts and used them to draw a picture of their personalities at that much younger age. One finding that jumped out to the researchers is that the more these early statements expressed positive emotions, using words like gratitude, hope, happiness and love, the more likely the sister was to still be alive. The difference in additional years of life expectancy was about seven years.

One can look at such a study and immediately put things in the wrong order, saying something like, if I want to live longer, I should practice gratitude. That is grabbing the wrong end of the stick; it instrumentalizes gratitude. I think of those studies which show no real difference between those who pray and those who don't. Those studies, too, instrumentalize God and prayer, treating them as means to an end. I suspect that those who look at this study and are motivated to gratitude by a desire for a longer life will see a very modest benefit.

A better way to understand this study is something like that, as we live as we ought, we perform better. It is a confirmation that gratitude is a natural, healthy and necessary part of our lives. Now “ought” is a fraught word these days, turning many off with its (not necessarily intended) moralistic overtones. All that “ought” means in this case is according to design. We can think of ourselves like a car: if we perform regular maintenance on our cars and drive them with the understanding that we are not in an F1 racing car, the car will last longer because it is being used according to its design. As we take care of our car as we ought, it performs better.

Likewise, gratitude is a part of our design. We perform better when it is a regular part of our lives. Science says!

And of course, gratitude is not an abstract, disconnected feeling. One is grateful for something and to someone. This study thus confirms the Christian understanding of who we are: we are made for relationship and not just the transactional relationships of the marketplace or that too often characterize the workplace, but relationship of recognizing the good in the other and responding with gratitude. Our fundamental posture before God is one of gratitude. The Eucharist is, among other things, a meal of thanksgiving or gratitude.

Perhaps this article is a confirmation of what you already know to be true in your heart. Perhaps this is a reminder to nudge you back to where you want and need to be. But in any case, follow the science and follow God's instruction manual. Live your lives with gratitude!

Crucifix Drive - Donate Through May 18

HNOJ is hosting a Crucifix Drive to help every single room at the new Trinity Wood Catholic Retreat Center. Starting this summer HNOJ teens will be attending Extreme Faith Camp at Trinity Woods. You can be a part of bringing Christ to every room of camp by donating a Crucifix this spring.

Trinity Woods Catholic Retreat Center, the new home to Extreme Faith Camp for the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis, is collecting Crucifixes for the lodges, cabins, and sleeping areas. The Crucifixes should be between 10 and 15 inches high and have the body of Christ on the cross.

Please bring the Crucifixes to the parish office welcome desk by Sunday, May 18. If you would like more information about this Crucifix drive, please email Chris Kostelc at ckostelc@hnoj.org. If you would like more information about this new camp, please see the website at Trinitywoodscatholic.com

Thank you for your help in this important part of making our camp Catholic.

Catholic Movie Series

Join Holy Name of Jesus for a summer of movies! Starting in June, we will watch several of the most renowned Catholic-themed movies Hollywood has to offer. Feel free to come to one or all of these features where there will be abundant popcorn, fellowship and epic Catholic cinema based on both true and fictional stories.

There will be three different opportunities to view these great films with opportunities for discussion after. A few of them are Catholic in name and theme while others may not be explicitly Catholic but maintain many of the themes. A free-will offering is requested (roughly $10/person). Pizza and popcorn will be provided starting at 5:30 p.m. We will watch the movie in the St. Benedict Room from 6-8:30 followed by an optional happy hour discussion at Rock Elm.

Shoes of the Fisherman (an old Catholic classic) on Wednesday, June 19

A Quiet Place (a contemporary movie with Catholic themes) on Wednesday, July 10

The Scarlet and the Black (Another old Catholic classic) on Wednesday, Aug. 14

Registration is open! Please find all the details at hnoj.org/summermovies

Also keep watching all HNOJ media to keep in the loop on all things VBS. Welcome Jamie!

Memorial Day Mass

On Memorial Day we pray specifically for those who have died in our nation's wars, for their souls and the special sacrifice they made for our nation. Those brave soldiers whom we commemorate, heroically gave their lives to defend freedom, and their sacrifices are worthy of a public memorial as well as private awe. Memorial Day has also become a special time to remember all those loved ones who now live in the eternal peace of God's heavenly kingdom.

A Memorial Day Mass will be held on Monday, May 27, at 8 a.m. Mass will be followed by a cemetery service and honors. The cemetery is open for families to reflect and spend time in prayer, remembering their loved ones that have passed.

The Holy Name of Jesus church and school offices will be closed on this day in observance of Memorial Day.

Change in Adoration Schedule

We will not have exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on Monday, May 27.

Thank You from Ascension

Thank you, Holy Name of Jesus parishioners, for your support of Ascension Catholic School during your recent second collection. Your generosity helps provide a faith-filled education to more than 300 scholars. If you would like to volunteer at Ascension, please contact Margaret Conroy at mconroy@acamn.org or join us on Friday, May 17, at 9:15 a.m. for our Holy Name of Jesus volunteer tour at Ascension Catholic School. And if you'd still like to make a financial contribution, you can do so online at hnoj.org/ascension. Thank you again for your support. We are so grateful.

Blessing of Mothers

During the season of Easter, what a great time to remember our mothers and ask for God's blessing on them. It is God who ultimately gave us life. It is through God's unselfish love - mirrored in our mothers' willingness to associate their love with God's and take the risk to love us into life - that we have the opportunity for life. We remember our mothers this Mother's Day with much love. Let us pray for each of them:

God our heavenly Father, you give to each the ability to share your generative love.

Bless those women in our lives who mirror your love and bring forth life through their willingness to risk bringing new life into this world.

*Help us to show them our gratitude for the gift of life and the gift of a mother's love.
May our life-giving God continue to bless them and show them his unfailing love.*

*We ask this through Jesus, God's Son and our brother.
Amen.*

Communion Outreach

If you or someone you know is homebound in our parish area and would like Communion brought to them, please contact Maureen Laird-Hayes at mymontanamo@gmail.com or 612-723-7001. At Holy Name of Jesus it is our joy and honor to be able to provide this ministry through our Communion Outreach Team.

Scripture of the Week

"Go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel to every creature." (Mark 16:15)

The Feast of the Ascension is always celebrated 40 days after Easter. This corresponds with the Scriptural accounts of Jesus being present with His disciples for 40 days following His resurrection. While that 40 days will always fall on a Thursday, many dioceses in the U.S. celebrate the feast on the following Sunday because it is such an important occurrence - namely, Jesus ascends, Body and Soul, into Heaven.

But before He ascends, Jesus promises to send the Holy Spirit to be with His followers. We are never abandoned. We are never alone. The Father's love encompasses us, His Son remains as our very food - Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity, and the Holy Spirit dwells within us.

Weekly reflections by parishioner Jon Hickman.

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

So then the Lord Jesus, after he spoke to them, was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God. But they went forth and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the word through accompanying signs. - Mk 16:19-20

Mother's Day Rose Sale, This Weekend

Honor your mom, grandma, godmother or any other special person who has "mothered" you! A Community Caring for Life will be providing "Thanks, Mom, for Life" roses for Mother's Day at all Masses. To learn more, you are invited to attend one of two information sessions. The first is Monday, May 20, at 7 p.m. at the University of St. Thomas.
