More Than Ordinary

By Fr. Mike Reinhardt

As we enter a season of Ordinary Time, it is worth pondering just what that means. Sometimes it can seem as if the Church calendar is jam-packed with memorials, feasts and holidays. Indeed it is, and much more so than we often realize. The term the Church uses for those “ordinary” days in which there is no particular feast or memorial is ferial, and the root of ferial is festival. Thus there are no ordinary days, strictly speaking, for they are all God’s days and worthy of our praise and rejoicing.

St. John Chrysostom puts it succinctly: “where love rejoices, there is festivity.” This is the fitting posture towards God and towards God’s creation that we, as Christians, are called to adopt always and everywhere. Thus the ordinary is seen most clearly as extraordinary.

This is first of all an affirmation of God and His own first judgment of creation, for it was on the seventh day that God beheld what He had made and pronounced it very good. There is no deeper affirmation of the essential goodness of all of reality than this statement by God himself, who brought all things into being and, without exception, affirms and loves all things. It is our fitting participation in creation to affirm God’s judgment with our own vision. “Where love rejoices, there is festivity.”

Where we fail to participate in God’s vision and to experience each day as at least ferial, we slip into the merely servile and utilitarian, into that place where our daily work is drudgery and our daily bread mere nutrition. It is a place of slavery to lesser gods as we fail to remember whose we are and in whose world we are. Failure to be festive traps us in lies of our secular age.

In contrast, festivity is liberation. It frees us because it is a participation in God’s rejoicing, in His timeless vision, as His immortal sons and daughters. We pass beyond the barriers of this present life on earth.

That is Ordinary Time, ordinary only in the sense that we Christians never step away from the ferial. Our default posture is to see as God sees and to love what He loves, and to let that extraordinary affirmation seep into our souls where we find it cannot be contained but must express itself in joy. “Where love rejoices, there is festivity.”

Catholic Movie Series

Join Holy Name of Jesus for a summer of movies! Starting in June, we will watch several of the most renowned Catholic-themed movies Hollywood has to offer. Feel free to come to one or all of these features where there will be abundant popcorn, fellowship and epic Catholic cinema based on both true and fictional stories.

There will be three different opportunities to view these great films with opportunities for discussion after. A few of them are Catholic in name and theme while others may not be explicitly Catholic but maintain many of the themes. A free-will offering is requested (roughly $10/person). Pizza and popcorn will be provided starting at 5:30 p.m. We will watch the movie in the St. Benedict Room from 6-8:30 followed by an optional discussion at Rock Elm. Please find all the details and registration at hnoj.org/summermovies

A Quiet Place (a contemporary movie with Catholic themes) on Wednesday, July 10

The Scarlet and the Black (another old Catholic classic) on Wednesday, Aug. 14

Welcome Fr. Chris Yanta, July 6-7

In lieu of Fr. Mike's departure at the end of June for his new assignment at Saint Rita's, the Archbishop has announced that Fr. Chris Yanta has been assigned to Holy Name of Jesus as Parochial Vicar starting July 1.

Fr. Chris Yanta grew up at St. Timothy Catholic Church in Maple Lake, MN. He is the third of seven children. He spent three years studying engineering at NDSU before entering seminary at St. John Vianney College Seminary in St. Paul and then four years at St. Paul Seminary. Among other things, he likes to fish and play frisbee golf.

We hope you can join us to welcome Fr. Yanta his first weekend at HNOJ July 6-7. We will have special hospitality after the Sunday morning Masses.

A Note from Fr. Derek

Fellow friends of Holy Name of Jesus,

It was a great joy to celebrate my Mass of Thanksgiving with you on June 2. With you having been my assigned Teaching Parish in seminary these past four years, your parish community has become like a second home to me. Your prayers, encouragement and the experiences you have given me have helped me become the priest I am today, and with God's help, what I have received will continue to form me to grow in greater conformity to Christ. I want to also thank you for the amazing custom-made Holy Name priest and deacon vestment set gifted to me from the parish. They will be a constant reminder to me of the life and spirit which pours fourth from this community. I will continue to remember you in prayer as I transition into my first assignment at the Church of St. John the Baptist in New Brighton. I hope our paths will continue to cross soon. Thank you for your kindness and may God bless you for your witness of faith!

 -Fr. Derek Gilde

Happy Father's Day

A Community Caring for Life appreciates all the men at Holy Name of Jesus whether a dad or a person that has been a role model and mentor. St. Joseph is an amazing example of love and sacrifice to defend the most vulnerable. Fathers, you have an amazing calling by God and role in family life and our community. Happy Father's Day!

Women's Socials and Men's Bonfires This Week

Again this summer, we are offering a time to get together for an evening with new and old friends!

Women's Summer Nights

Wouldn't it be nice to gather on a new or old friend's deck and enjoy a beverage of your choice with a group of friends from church? Yeah, we thought so too. Again this summer HNOJ is hosting monthly women's social nights. We are looking for a couple more women to host an evening at their home. If you are interested in hosting, please contact Chris.

The registration form is on our event page hnoj.org/womenssummernights. The socials are from 7-9 p.m. on the following days: June 20, July 25 and Aug. 15.

Men's Bonfires

It has been a long, (sorta) cold, snowy winter and all of us are looking for some time around a good summer bonfire. Join other men of HNOJ at our Men's Summer Bonfire Series.

Each bonfire will be hosted at a different home. Those who register will be contacted with the address of the host site. Men will register for each date; you may attend one or all of the bonfires. Feel free to bring a friend. If the day of you want to attend or you want to invite a buddy who didn't register, just show up. All is well.

Food and beverage will be "bring your own" style. Fire and good conversation will be provided. This will be a great opportunity to meet other guys in the parish and get together with old friends too. The registration form is on the event page hnoj.org/mensbonfires

Bonfires are at 7 p.m. on the following days: June 19, July 24 and Aug. 14.

Scripture of the Week

"...we walk by faith, not by sight." (2Corinthians 5:7)

We like to think that walking by faith is hard, that by not seeing the physical presence of God we are somehow left confused or unsure. We like to think lots of things that are untrue, and this is one of them.

You woke up this morning breathing. It mattered not that you did not see, did not feel, did not taste or did not smell the air - you just breathed and trusted (had faith) that there was air. When you woke up you did not float away into the sky, rather you were grounded to the earth by gravity. No tasting, smelling, feeling or seeing required, thinking either, most likely. We have faith - and often blind faith - on many things all the time. Trust in the God who made the air, who made gravity and who made you. He's got this.

Weekly reflections by parishioner Jon Hickman.

In Our Parish and Our Community

Fr. Mike's Farewell Celebration, June 22-23

It is bittersweet to announce Fr. Mike's upcoming departure from our parish community as he sets out on a new chapter of his journey. Archbishop Hebda has entrusted him with the role of Parochial Administrator at St. Rita Catholic Church in Cottage Grove, starting July 1.

We are immensely grateful for the countless ways Fr. Mike has blessed HNOJ with his caring, priestly service, guiding families through both joyful and challenging times. During his time here, Fr. Mike has touched many lives and left a lasting impression on our community. His legal expertise has been invaluable in advancing key projects, notably our cemetery initiative. He has also been instrumental in the area of liturgy, leading our Liturgy Commission and overseeing logistical preparations. Moreover, he has been a wonderful member of the HNOJ staff and a great rectory companion, known for his warmth, understated humor and even culinary talents!

Although we will miss him dearly, this new assignment is a testament to Archbishop Hebda's confidence in Fr. Mike's leadership. Let us join in expressing our gratitude for Fr. Mike in the weeks ahead. We will have the opportunity to thank him during his final weekend at HNOJ, on June 22-23.
