Gospel Reflection: In the End, Does it Matter?

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman @LPI

Mini Reflection: Jesus was radical in His teaching that the “stuff” in life wasn’t all that important. It was radical for Him to say that the worldly signs of success did not amount to a whole lot in the grand scheme of things and that suffering could sanctify us. Are we ready to be radical, too?

In the End, Does it Matter?

When I was a teenager, the priest I would go to for confession used to tell me, over and over: “In the end, we all get the same dirty hole in the ground.”

What he meant was, it doesn’t matter how rich or smart or well-liked we are. We’re all heading to the same place. This life comes to an end for every man. All the money he earns, all the stuff, all the worldly esteem, will at some point be of no further use. We all get the same dirty hole in the ground.

It was an important message for me to hear, because at the time, it all seemed so important: my after-school job and my FAFSA application and my grades. The admiration of my friends and teachers. I was so consumed with what I was going to become that I wasn’t spending a lot of time thinking about who I was going to become. But the who is the only thing that lasts until the next life.

And to be honest, it’s all still too important to me. Avoiding sadness and disappointment. Saving money and being liked. Focusing on “the five-year plan” when it comes to career, house plans and a whole bunch of other things I can’t take to my dirty hole in the ground.

Jesus was radical in His teaching that the “stuff” in life wasn’t all that important. It was radical for Him to say that the worldly signs of success – wealth, popularity, pleasure – did not amount to a whole lot in the grand scheme of things and that suffering could sanctify us. It was radical in the ancient world, and it’s radical today.

Are we ready to be radical, too?

Join a Lenten Small Group

Last year, Holy Name of Jesus started 40 new small groups comprised of nearly 70 leaders and 370 participants! This year we continue to grow our groups and will be focused on content that comes from the book "Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist." We will focus on the ruthless elimination of boredom at Mass!

There are several date/time options that can fit into your schedule! Choose from groups for seniors, busy moms and dads, couples, young adults and more.

Please join us on this Lenten journey!

We expect about 35 Small groups to begin the week of March 5 on various days and times and wrap up before Holy Week begins (that's only five weeks!). They will consist of 1-1.5 hour length meetings which include time to praise, check in, discuss the topic, pray and give thanks. To register, follow the link to our Small Group Software "Group Vitals" where you will see all the groups and ask to join one that works for you. The small group leader will follow up with you to confirm your spot.

If you would like to purchase the book, "Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist: Unlocking the Secrets of the Last Supper" By Brant Pitre, we are taking orders. Reading the book is not necessary to be part of a small group. Our group discount rate is $5 per book.

More information, small group registration and details for ordering the book may all be found at hnoj.org/lentensmallgroups

Scripture of the Week

"But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep." (1 Cor 15:20)

Jeremiah, in today's First Reading, contrasts people who trust in people against people who trust in the Lord. Those who trust in people are to be cursed while those who trust in the Lord are to be blessed.

Jesus will pick up this theme in today's Gospel Reading from Luke's telling of the "Sermon on the Plain". Today we hear the first half of Jesus's teaching, next week we will hear the second half.

Jesus begins with four "blessings" (or beatitudes) and finishes with four "woes". As with Jeremiah's reading, Jesus's sets of blessings and woes counterbalance each other - "poor" versus "rich", "hungry" versus "filled", "weeping" versus "laughing", "people hate you" versus "all speak well of you". Ultimately Jesus is calling them, and us, to change. The woes are not simply about having wealth or popularity, rather it is making wealth, or joy, or abundant food our God and in so doing, turning our backs on those who do not share all of our blessings.
