Chiropractors, Jumbo Jets and Generosity

By Murray Wolf, HNOJ Outreach Committee Member

A few years ago, my wife, Betsy, got into a chance conversation with another patient in the waiting room at the chiropractor's office. The woman mentioned that she was volunteering to prepare and serve lunch to the homeless at a south Minneapolis church. As the conversation continued, it became evident that the woman was in way over her head and needed a lot more help. After some family discussion, Betsy and I and our three kids agreed to pitch in. Let's just say that our middle schooler and two high schoolers (and their dad) were not necessarily highly enthused.

As it turned out, that random chat between chiropractic "adjustments" resulted in an "attitude adjustment" for all of us. Although, as noted, our pre-teen daughter and teen sons (and their father) were initially reluctant to give up a Sunday afternoon, our brief time in south Minneapolis changed our family for the better. It was an eye-opener for the kids (and us), and a vivid reminder that everyone - even the most troubled homeless person - was made in the image and likeness of God.

The comments, smiles and gratitude of the men and women we served that day made a lasting impression on all of us, including our now-adult children. We didn't think about it that way at the time, but this experience helped to teach our children to be more caring, generous adults.

At Holy Name of Jesus, we seek to know the heart of Christ, see the face of Christ and be the hands of Christ. By being His hands for only a couple of hours that day, we were privileged to see the face of Christ. And the way that experience touched our family, well, I don't presume to know the heart of Christ, but I think we certainly got a firsthand look at His love.

Teaching generosity can be a precious gift to your children if you're a parent. If you're not a parent, being generous can be a blessing to yourself. Here's how.

I must admit that I am a recovering curmudgeon. When asked to volunteer time and energy, or to contribute money, my gut reaction used to be, "Yeah, no. I am doing plenty already." But here's the thing. I have learned that I always - always! - get more than I give. The joy of service always far exceeds the sacrifice of the time spent, and the joy of giving never fails to outweigh the cost.

Unfortunately, we don't need to look far to find people in need. You certainly don't need to travel to south Minneapolis (although that certainly remains an option). Significant need can be found right here in the northwestern suburbs. That's why in March we at Holy Name of Jesus have a special opportunity to help those in need through our annual food drive with Interfaith Outreach.

Since 1979, Plymouth-based Interfaith has worked with partners like HNOJ to help individuals and families with food, housing, education, employment and transportation. How big is the need? Well, at least as big as a jumbo jet. During the 2024 fiscal year, the Interfaith Outreach food shelf distributed food totaling 825,604 pounds, or about 413 tons - roughly the equivalent of a fully loaded Boeing 747. That's a lot of need. Interfaith served 4,819 clients to meet the emergency and ongoing needs of families, kids, seniors and those with disabilities.

Prayer for Generosity from St. Ignatius of Loyola

"Lord, teach me to be generous. To serve you as you deserve. To give and not to count the cost. To fight and not to heed the wounds. To toil and not to seek for rest. To labor and not to look for any reward, save that of knowing that I do your holy will."

Lenten Parish Mission, March 26-27

If you don't know him by name, you know his gorgeous black and white photographs of mountain tops and scenic valleys. Ansel Adams would climb through the national parks and wild lands of the American west in search of the next perfectly magnificent photo. After studying his mountain subject from nearly every angle, he was known to camp out on the side of a valley, set up his cameras and wait. He would wait for the perfect light, the very best angle, the most stunning way to fully, beautifully capture something that is nearly impossible to photograph in all its glory.

The Mass is even more majestic than a mountain. The Mass is deeper than any American valley or gorge. If it is nearly impossible to photograph a mountain's grandeur, how much harder is it to describe the glory of God in the Mass.

This Lent at HNOJ, we have our own Ansel Adams. Instead of photographing a mountain, Dr. Ed Sri has studied, dived deep, walked all around and camped out in the midst of our most Holy Liturgy. He knows the ins and outs, the roots found in scripture and the joy of closeness with the God of the Universe.

Like an Ansel Adams photograph, Dr. Sri is going to capture the beauty, majesty and glory of the Mass and help us to see the Mass as it really is - Heaven on Earth.

To attend his two talks about the Mass is to catch, for a moment, a glimpse of the tremendous, glorious gift of the Mass. If you come and hear him speak, your experience with the Mass will never be the same.

HNOJ is excited to announce we will be hosting a Lenten Parish Mission on March 26 and 27 with Dr. Ed Sri. Both talks will be held in the Main Church from 6:30-8:30 p.m. with nursery and elementary age childcare available. There will be refreshments after in the Good Samaritan Center.

Mark your calendars now and invite your friends to this exciting opportunity to grow in faith this Lent. More information at hnoj.org/lentenparishmission

Join a Lenten Small Group, Last Call

Last year, Holy Name of Jesus started 40 new small groups comprised of nearly 70 leaders and 370 participants! This year we continue to grow our groups and will be focused on content that comes from the book "Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist." We will focus on the ruthless elimination of boredom at Mass!

There are several date/time options that can fit into your schedule! Choose from groups for seniors, busy moms and dads, couples, young adults and more.

Please join us on this Lenten journey!

We expect about 35 Small groups to begin the week of March 5 on various days and times and wrap up before Holy Week begins (that's only five weeks!). They will consist of 1-1.5 hour length meetings which include time to praise, check in, discuss the topic, pray and give thanks. To register, follow the link to our Small Group Software "Group Vitals" where you will see all the groups and ask to join one that works for you. The small group leader will follow up with you to confirm your spot.

More information, small group registration and details for ordering the book may all be found at hnoj.org/lentensmallgroups

Ash Wednesday Ashes

Question:

Why do we place ashes on our forehead each Ash Wednesday?

Answer:

Ashes are rich in spiritual symbolism. We recall in the second chapter of Genesis, when the human person is fashioned "out of the dust of the ground" and receives the breath of life (Genesis 2:7). In death, a person returns to the ground from which we came. The ancient Hebrews used ashes as a sign of repentance, reminding themselves that God is God and we are not.

As the minister places ashes on our forehead, we hear either "remember that you are dust and unto dust you shall return" or "turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel." When we receive ashes, we remember our own mortality. We're reminded that we have limited time on this earth and we ought to make the best use of it that we can! People are in need of love, care, and compassion. We all need to continually rediscover the love of God. The Gospel invites every person in every stage of life to encounter and imitate Jesus here and now. The forty days of Lent are the perfect time to assess our own awareness of these realities.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

At Holy Name of Jesus, we offer Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays from 8:30 a.m.-9 p.m.

Eucharistic Adoration is an opportunity to find an oasis of peace in the midst of a hectic world, an opportunity for silence in the midst of ceaseless noise, an opportunity for reflection in the midst of never-ending tasks of daily life. Most of all, it is an opportunity to spend time with Jesus, and to get to know Him as a friend, a friend who delights simply in time spent with those He loves.

God wants to be close to us. The Eucharist is the miracle of this closeness in our lives. The goal of Adoration is to help us appreciate this miracle in a deeper way, so that we enter more deeply into the wonder of the Mass, and allow it to transform our lives.

You can sign up for a Holy Hour each week or just come and pray when we have Adoration in the Chapel.

For questions or to sign up, please go online to hnoj.org/adoration.
