The Stones Will Cry Out

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman @LPI

I have a complicated relationship with evangelization.

I don't think that we (I'm talking about 21st-century American Catholics here) have had much formation around what exactly it means to proclaim the Gospel. We don't know how to do it. We don't really want to do it. It sounds kind of scary and awkward. It sounds like knocking on strangers' doors and yelling through the keyhole,
"Have you accepted Christ as your Lord and Savior?" It sounds like arguing with friends and family. It sounds like a real pain.

I'm Catholic. I'm proud of being Catholic. I do my Catholic things in my Catholic house throughout my Catholic life. But is that enough?

All Christians are called to "wordless witness" in how they live their lives, writes Paul VI in the apostolic exhortation Evangelii Nuntiandi – but this alone, he says, is "insufficient." We must talk about Jesus. We must name Him. We must speak of His life, His promises. We must proclaim Him.

We must be loud enough that a Pharisee would cringe at us.

And yet – and Paul VI acknowledges this – it's not actually evangelization if we do it so badly that nobody listens. If we "impose" truth on someone's conscience instead of "proposing" it. If we make the mistake of thinking there is one singular way to share Christ with the great variety of personalities that exist in this world.

Dear reader, I am running out of column space, and still I have no answers for you, or for myself. I don't know how to do it well. But I know we have to try.
We have to pray. We have to reflect. We have to be patient. We have to be humble. We have to remember it's about Him and not about us.

Most of all, when we find ourselves confused and retreating into silence, we must remember Christ's words: "If they keep silent, the stones will cry out."

Watchfire

You are invited to gather with family and friends to tend the watchfire and prayerfully prepare for the coming of our Lord this Easter.

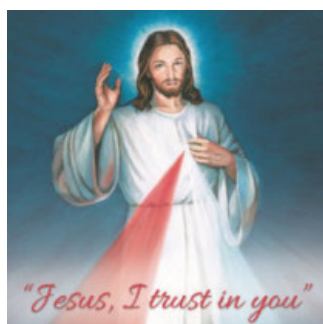

The watchfire is a Holy Name of Jesus tradition that provides an opportunity to pray and ponder our Lord's sacrifice and anticipate His Glorious Resurrection. This fire is lit after the repossession of the Blessed Sacrament on Holy Thursday Mass and extinguished at the Easter Vigil on Saturday evening.

Please consider signing up for a two-hour time slot. You can sign up at the welcome desk or online at hnoj.org/holyweek

Divine Mercy Sunday, April 27

From Saint Faustina's diary: "Jesus said to me, Paint an image according to the pattern you see, with the signature: Jesus, I trust in You. I desire that this image be venerated, first in your chapel, and then throughout the world... I desire that there be a Feast of Mercy. I want this image to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter; that Sunday is to be the Feast of Mercy." (Diary of Saint Faustina, Notebook 1, paragraphs 47 and 49).

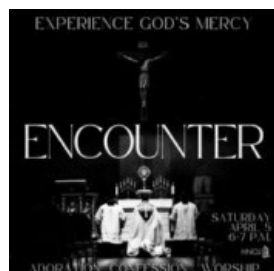

At HNOJ there will be a Divine Mercy Chaplet prayed after all the Sunday Masses on April 27, with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. This prayer is spoken, and prayed using an ordinary Rosary. This prayer contains the repetition of praying the phrase, "For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world".

Remember, you can start the novena on Good Friday.

Scripture of the Week

*"Christ Jesus, though He was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped."
(Philippians 2:6)*

Today we will hear two proclamations from St. Luke's Gospel. We hear the story of the Triumphal Entry into Jerusalem as we start Mass. And for the Gospel Reading, we hear Jesus's last hours starting with the Last Supper and ending with His death and burial. Today we enter, also, into a week of ironies, today's procession of celebration as Jesus enters Jerusalem followed by His death a short time later and capped off by a Friday we name "Good" that features the recounting of the death of Jesus.

Next week we celebrate the Resurrection - which is the ironic end to the death of Jesus, treated like a criminal, brutally tortured, denied by His friends, and then crucified. It doesn't make sense, and, in fact, it cannot make sense this side of Heaven. St. Paul's recounting of an ancient hymn in our Second Reading today helps orient us towards a rudimentary understanding, however. "Though He was in the form of God, He did not grasp equality with God something to be grasped." The entirety of the Gospels is pointing at this simple fact - Jesus always submitted His will to that of the Father. And encourages us to do the same when He said to the apostles (and to us) "Come follow me."

Videographer and Photographer at HNOJ, April 27

We have some exciting news! We will be updating and freshening up some of the images and videos on our website hnoj.org. We have a videographer and photographer scheduled to be at the 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Masses on Sunday, April 27. If you are not comfortable with the possibility of being in a crowd shot, feel free to attend Mass at another time, or sit toward the back of the church. Thank you!

Friday Night Alive, April 25

Friday Night Alive (FNA) is a monthly gathering at HNOJ for middle schoolers to get to know each other through fun activities (open gym, team 4-square, gaga ball, fun crafts and more!) and to grow in their relationship with Christ through prayer and listening to relatable talks given by our high school core team. We begin with a meal at 5:30 p.m. and have a blast until 8:30 p.m. Our next date is Friday, April 25.

FNA nights are free of charge and open to all 5th through 8th grade youth. This is a great time for middle schoolers to bring a friend! Walk ins are welcome, but RSVPs are appreciated to help us get an accurate food count. To RSVP, please email Luke Klavins at lklavins@hnoj.org.

Women's Wisdom on Wednesdays

WWW is a community of women who meet throughout the year at HNOJ for fellowship and learning. As Catholic women, we are called to live out the beauty of our femininity in ways that bring glory and honor to God and the Church and life to the world. In this year's WWW program, we'll focus on how we might do that. We'll listen to the ideas of a number of Catholic women and discuss how to better develop and share our own unique spiritual gifts.

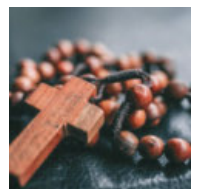

Block III: April 23 through May 28, 10:30 a.m.-12 p.m.

Please find more information and registration online at hnoj.org/womens-wisdom. For questions, contact Chris Kostelc at 763-745-3489 or ckostelc@hnoj.org.
