Some Say

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman @LPI

Mini Reflection: People have a lot of opinions about God. But when the world asks, "Who do you say that Jesus is?" We know the answer. Will we speak up?

At first, the Apostles try to dodge the question.

When Jesus confronts them – and make no mistake, it is a confrontation – with the question "Who do you say that I am?" they act like a man whose wife has just asked him if she looks fat in these jeans.

The evasiveness of their answer puts politicians to shame: "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

Some say.

But Jesus doesn't let them off easy. He repeats himself. He wants an answer.
"Who do you say that I am?"

They all know the answer. They all believe the answer. And they all know the answer could get them thrown in prison or killed. Only Peter is brave enough to say it: "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God."

People have a lot of opinions about God. They always have. They have a lot of opinions about Jesus and the Bible, about the Catholic Church and the Pope.
Some of these opinions are well-founded, well-researched. Some of them are based in ignorance. Many are born of painful misunderstandings. But they are all just that: opinions.

Some say.

We know who Jesus is. We know who the Eucharist is. We know what the truth is. Amid the chaos and the violence and the excruciating loudness of this fallen world and all the words it shouts into the void about God and Jesus and right and wrong, we know.

But will we answer?

A Graduate's Reflection

By Addie Stavitzski

I grew up going to Holy Name of Jesus, and my family has roots that go deep into the parish's history. I spent every Sunday sitting in the back by the statue of Mary with my family, and from an early age was fascinated by the Catholic faith.

But as I got older, I began to question the faith I was raised in. I was facing personal struggles and about to change schools, and that left me feeling alone and scared. Then I encountered Christ on a middle school retreat in 6th grade. That encounter changed my life. I began attending youth ministry events, going to every retreat and camp and little by little, opening my heart to Christ and letting Him take control of my life.

And thank God I did, because I met mentors and friends who became family, formed memories that I hold dear and soon Holy Name of Jesus became my second home.

When I leave in August to go to Creighton, leaving Holy Name of Jesus will be one of the hardest goodbyes. It's where I went to grade school, church and work – the place I spend almost every day at.

But I have comfort in knowing that wherever I go, I will always have a home in the Catholic Church.

Class of 2025, whether church was something you looked forward to or dreaded, or felt indifferent about, or whether the faith is something you believe in or have doubts about, whether you are certain God exists or are unsure about it, the Catholic Church is your home. Whether you are in North Dakota or California or in Northern Minnesota, the Mass you celebrate is the same as the one we celebrate at HNOJ. The communities you encounter are driven by the same values and beliefs.

It can be scary starting something new, and we are not called to do so alone. This next chapter is an opportunity to say yes to God or renew that yes, to surrender your anxieties, excitements and fears over to God and begin a journey that you won't regret going on.

Holy Name of Jesus, thank you for teaching us what it means to be a Catholic community. Thank you for supporting us, for praying for us, for leading by example.

Parents, thank you for teaching us what selflessness looks like, for taking us to Mass and sharing the faith. And classmates, thank you for sharing your time, talents and faith. You are going to accomplish incredible things, and never be afraid to say yes to Christ, because that yes can change your life.

High School Local Mission Trip, Aug. 1-4

This summer, HNOJ will be hosting a local mission trip for high school students, right here on our campus. The goal of this mission is to serve Christ in the city.

As this is my first time coordinating an event like this, many details are still being finalized. However, the general plan is to spend our mornings and afternoons doing service work, while our evenings will focus on formation, fellowship and opportunities to encounter Christ through prayer.

The mission trip will take place from Aug. 1-4, and registration may be found at hnoj.org/missiontrip

If you are interested in serving alongside us as an adult volunteer, please reach out to me, Luke Klavins, lklavins@hnoj.org. We look forward to an incredible experience of service, faith and community!

Each small group night allows time for formation, prayer and fun! We will not meet on June 30 due to the holiday week.

This is a great option if your regular small group is taking a break for the summer. Pre-register if you can but walk-ins are welcome. More information at hnoj.org/smallgroups

Scripture of the Week

*"And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church."
(Matthew 16:18a)*

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles. Our readings begin with the imprisonment of Peter and his miraculous release and continue with Paul's exhortation to Timothy to compete well - to finish the race and keep the faith. Then the readings end with Jesus's words to Peter declaring him to be "Rock", the very rock which will be the foundation of Christ's Church.

Both Peter and Paul will end up in Rome. Both will have public ministries there. And both will be killed in Rome. Yet the very empire that sought to crush the infant Church they preached is now long gone and what remains is that very Church that Saints Peter and Paul preached. In fact, Rome itself is now synonymous with that Church, the Catholic Church. The Basilica of St. Paul Outside the Walls (housing the tomb of St. Paul), and St. Peter's Basilica (containing the tomb of St. Peter) stand strong as testaments to the truth that Saints Peter and Paul preached.
