True Rest

By Fr. Chris Yanta

Our world is such a busy place, and our calendars quickly fill up with work, shopping, sporting events, vacations, house projects, birthday parties, meal prep, and many other things. And when we do get a break, when we are confronted with a moment of silence, we often get trapped in the thought that “I’m not accomplishing enough”, and we frantically look for something to fill our time, or the ever present phone seems to always linger at our fingertips, never allowing us to have that moment to breath, that moment to simply be, to rest and be refreshed. It’s important to remember that “we are human beings, not human doings” (Rick Warren).

Because the world expects so much from us, we often measure our own worth by what we can do or accomplish. But it’s important to remember that God doesn’t love us because of what we can do or accomplish. Instead, He loves us simply because we are. He loves us simply because we exist and belong to Him, like a child resting in its parents arms who has done nothing to deserve their love. And yet, their love is palpable. Are we taking the time to soak in this love from our creator?

God created leisure and rest for us because He knew we needed it. “And God rested on the seventh day from all the work he had done.” (Genesis 2:2). Or as Jesus tells us, “The sabbath was made for man, not man for the sabbath” (Mark 2:27). How are we at entering into this rest and being refreshed by it, especially on Sunday?

It starts by how we approach the activities in our life. Leisure, which is different from laziness, involves doing something for its own sake, not because it helps you to accomplish something else or because it needs to be done, but simply because you enjoy it, simply because it is true, good, and beautiful. Read a book, not for study, but because it captivates you. Go for a walk or exercise, not because you want to get in shape but because it is lifegiving to you. Paint an art project or do woodworking, not because you want others to see it, but simply for the joy of creating something with your own hands.

As we approach the final month of summer, ask yourself, am I taking enough time to simply be, to rest in existence itself, allowing the love of God to fill my life with joy and peace? Because it is by entering into His rest that we can then truly thrive.

Together, we will discern what their lives and voices can teach us as modern women of faith - within our families, the Church, and the wider world. Come be inspired, challenged, and encouraged by the enduring wisdom of these saints. We meet on Wednesdays from 10:30 am-12 pm.

Block I: Mystics: Sept. 24 through Oct. 29

In our group here at Holy Name of Jesus you will find friends, mentors, speakers, and activities all focused on helping you be the mom and woman you were created to be.

Registration is now open for the 2025-2026 program! We meet from 9-11 am on the first and third Fridays of the month, September through May. Childcare is available. Cost is $100. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

At Holy Name of Jesus, we offer Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays from 8:30 am-9 pm.

Eucharistic Adoration is an opportunity to find an oasis of peace in the midst of a hectic world, an opportunity for silence in the midst of ceaseless noise, and an opportunity for reflection in the midst of never-ending tasks of daily life. Most of all, it is an opportunity to spend time with Jesus, and to get to know Him as a friend, a friend who delights simply in time spent with those He loves.

God wants to be close to us. The Eucharist is the miracle of this closeness in our lives. The goal of Adoration is to help us appreciate this miracle in a deeper way, so that we enter more deeply into the wonder of the Mass, and allow it to transform our lives.

You can sign up for a Holy Hour each week or just come and pray when we have Adoration in the Chapel.

For questions or to sign up, please go online to hnoj.org/adoration

The Difference Makers Retreat: Called to Love, Called to Serve

Saturday, Nov. 8, from 1:50-5:30 pm at the Plymouth Playhouse Theatre

A few weeks ago, we heard the Gospel story of the Good Samaritan. In it, Jesus reminds us of the Great Commandment: to love God with all our heart, mind, and soul – and to love our neighbor as ourselves. He then tells a striking parable: a Samaritan, from a different tribe and religious tradition, sees a wounded man in a ditch and chooses compassion. Though separated by belief and background, he recognizes a neighbor in need and comes to his aid.

This Gospel reminds us that faith is not just an interior journey with God – it's also a call outward, into the world. It's a call to servanthood.

Servanthood is the heart of an upcoming half-day, interdenominational Christian retreat called The Difference Makers, to be held Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at Plymouth Playhouse. Through music, witness talks, guided discussion, and audience interaction, we'll explore four key questions:

- Who is God?
- Who am I?
- Where's the need?
- What's my call?

I warmly invite you to come. Fr. Wratkowski will be attending, and a number of parishioners have already bought tickets. Four Holy Name of Jesus parishioners will have speaking roles on stage, joining me up there (I'm the retreat organizer and co-facilitator). Early bird tickets are $36.74. Multiple tickets remain available. To learn more, visit TheDifferenceMakers.site or reach out to me at tmohr@ceoquest.com.

Yours in Christ,
Tom Mohr

Ascension Catholic School Career Day

Four HNOJ parishioners participated in Career Day at Ascension Catholic School. Here is what they had to say about this amazing experience:

It was a true pleasure to participate in the career path event with students at Ascension School. What a unique and valuable opportunity for students to explore a wide range of career paths! I was deeply impressed by their curiosity, focus, and thoughtful questions. Being able to contribute in some small way to the growth and inspiration of the next generation is something I value greatly. It was especially meaningful to share this experience alongside fellow HNOJ parishioners through our ongoing partnership with Ascension School.
-John

It was a great experience and the scholars had great questions and participation. The importance of mentorship was what caught my attention. Everyone on the panel had a mentor in their life at some point. I believe that is a powerful thing for anyone to have to help them grow spiritually and professionally. There will be different mentors as life changes, but for sure we need someone willing to listen and help guide us through life. If we can find mentors for the Ascension scholars, the sky is the limit for them. I know this first hand by being a mentor to several prior scholars.

- Bryan

Being able to share my career story with the middle school students at Ascension was a meaningful and energizing experience that deepened my own sense of purpose and reminded me how my faith and prayer life guide the way I use the gifts God has given me. It was a joy to encourage students to treat school as their current calling - showing up with intention, discipline, and heart just as they would in a future profession. Volunteering in this way, even while working full time, was a simple, but powerful way to give back and get involved! I was also able to meet other parishioners that I had not crossed paths with yet which was another blessing.

- Andrea

The students were very curious and engaged. They were well-prepared and polite. The biggest take-away for me was that I brought small crosses that I made and offered them to the students after class. Every student came up and took one. One student even asked if he could take two more for his mom and dad. How great is that?!

- Greg

If you are interested in being on a future career day panel at Ascension, please contact Deacon Dennis or sign up at the Outreach Ministries tent at the Fall Festival on Sept. 13.
