Are You Talking to Me?

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman @LPI

Last summer I was at the National Eucharistic Congress when Fr. Mike Schmitz delivered an impassioned call to repentance in his keynote address during an evening revival session. The crowd received his message with great enthusiasm.
Their applause and the cheers shook the Lucas Oil Stadium.

The next night, Sr. Josephine Garrett took the stage and, in her address, got into the nitty-gritty of what it means to be a disciple, what it means to live repentance – or, as she so beautifully put it, to embrace the hunger.

And in doing so, she called back to the previous night's thunderous approval of Fr. Mike's message.

"When I heard you clapping when Father said we need repentance, I was worried you thought he was talking about your neighbor's repentance," she said. "He is not."

In other words: he's talking about your repentance.

We all love a message about The Right Thing To Do. We all love when a priest or a nun or any Catholic with a microphone gets up and talks about the truth.
We rise to our feet and applaud.

And then, too often, we take a deep breath and walk to our car and forget all about it – because we think they were talking to someone else. You know...the others. The ones who need to hear it. The ones who aren't being vigilant.

In today's Gospel, Peter asks Jesus, "Is this parable [of the absent master] meant for us, or for everyone?" (Luke 12:41). And Jesus answers him with a question. In so many words, He says this: "Do you want it to be for you? Are you ready to hear it?"

Whoever we are. Wherever we're from. Whatever our life looks like. However we pray. He's talking to us.

Are we ready to hear Him?

Well-Read Mom

Well-Read Mom is a Catholic book club for women no matter their stage of life. Meetings include single, married, widowed, divorced, grandmas, spiritual mothers, etc. All are welcome to read and discuss great literature!

Our meetings are the second Tuesday of the month, beginning on Sept. 9, from 7-8:30 pm at Holy Name of Jesus. You can view all HNOJ small group options at hnoj.org/smallgroups and scroll down to Well-Read Mom.

MomCo

Whether you are expecting your first child, have a baby, toddler, or your youngest is in school, MomCo is for you! Formerly MOPS, MomCo re-branded its name in 2024 to better reflect the lives of 21st century moms. However, its mission remains the same: to help moms of young children realize their potential as mothers, women, and leaders, in relationship with Jesus, and in partnership with the local church. In our group here at Holy Name of Jesus you will find friends, mentors, speakers, and activities all focused on helping you be the mom and woman you were created to be.

Registration is now open for the 2025-2026 program! We meet from 9-11 am on the first and third Fridays of the month, September through May. Childcare is available. Cost is $100. Please find all the details and registration at hnoj.org/momco. For questions, contact Chris Kostelc at 763-745-3489 or ckostelc@hnoj.org.

Women's Wisdom on Wednesday

Please join us for this year's WWW spirituality program during which we'll explore the lives of selected Catholic saints and holy women - mystics, mothers, and movers and shakers. Through short video or audio presentations and thoughtful discussion, we will reflect on the challenges and choices these women faced during their times. Together, we will discern what their lives and voices can teach us as modern women of faith - within our families, the Church, and the wider world. Come be inspired, challenged, and encouraged by the enduring wisdom of these saints. We meet on Wednesdays from 10:30 am-12 pm.

Block I: Mystics: Sept. 24 through Oct. 29
Block II: Mothers: Jan. 7 through Feb. 11
Block III: Movers and Shakers: April 8 through May 13

Please find more information and registration online at hnoj.org/womens-wisdom. You can register for one or all blocks. For questions, contact Chris Kostelc at 763-745-3489 or ckostelc@hnoj.org.

Scripture of the Week

*"Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen."
(Hebrews 11:1)*

Two strong themes are entwined in today's readings. In our Second Reading we hear from St. Paul both a "family history" of our religious heritage and through them a call to faith. For the word faith will be used six times in this reading. Always as the signpost for the actions of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Sarah - it was in faith and through faith that they continued to believe in God and turn their hearts and wills over to Him.

In our Gospel we see the second theme of preparing for the return of "the Master." We are called to gird our loins, the same call as to the Hebrew people as preparation for the Exodus. Jesus, in the longer version of the Gospel says, "where your treasure is, there also will your heart be" and then speaks of remaining in a state of readiness for His own return. This readiness is the faith discussed by St. Paul, "Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen."
