What Did You Expect?

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman @LPI

Moms have a lot of jobs, and it's usually the case that none of them pay very well.

My work as a chef? Zero compensation, and my clientele are very rarely pleased with my efforts. My role as a teacher, a maid, a chauffeur, a therapist – same deal. Ironically, these jobs consume so much of my time that I am constricted in my work as a writer – the only sphere where I do actually garner any earnings.

It is so easy to grumble about all of this, and I do it all the time. Because despite the fact that I know better, I expect repayment for my good deeds. Deep in my soul, I expect it.

That's a huge problem.

In my defense, I don't think this is a very uncommon thing. I think, if we're being really honest, we all expect "payment" for being a good person. We want God to give us what we ask. We want people to treat us a certain way. We want our day to go smoothly. We expect these things as a matter of course; we feel entitled to them, and we become grumpy when we are denied them. I worked so hard. I gave so much. What was it all even for?

But what if we expected absolutely nothing?

When you hold a banquet, Jesus said, invite those who cannot return the favor. Give not just without the expectation of repayment, but without the possibility of it.

Think about that for a minute. What does that even look like – no possibility of payment?

I know what that looks like in my own life. It's giving more to the literal poor, yes, but it's also giving more – and more happily, more lovingly – when I cook and clean and drive and write and console. It's not lamenting that no one appreciates me – it's actually hoping no one does.

It's learning to love the lowest place at the table. Because in the lowest place, we are closest to God.

Fall Festival Ticket Sales, Sept. 6-7

Avoid the long lines at the ticket booth. Fall Festival tickets will be available for purchase after all the Masses the weekend of Sept. 6-7. Tickets will also be available for purchase at the parish office during normal business hours from Sept. 7-12. Tickets are used for food, beverages, and kids games at Fall Festival. Tickets are $1 each for food/drink/games, but entrance to Fall Festival is free.

If you prefer to purchase your tickets at Fall Festival, we suggest you bring cash to shorten the wait time in the ticket line.

Fall Festival, Sept. 13

Please join us for our annual Fall Festival which will be held on Saturday, Sept. 13, from 4-9 pm. Kick off the Festival with Mass on the Grass. Only once a year do we offer an opportunity to enjoy Mass in the great outdoors. Again this year, Mass will be on the grass opposite the school playground to allow for more shade, easier access, and timing. Bring a blanket or lawn chair. We will have golf cart transportation for those with limited mobility (pick up by the school doors).

After Mass take part in any of the following activities at your leisure:

- Live Music by The Covers
- Kids Games and Crafts
- Inflatables
- Face Painting
- Cookie Decorating
- Dragon Train Ride
- Music and Dancing
- Great Food
- Outreach Ministry Tent
- Country Market
- Classic Car Show

Remember to turn in your sweepstakes tickets by 6 pm on Sept. 13. You can bring them in to the church office or drop them in the collection basket before Sept. 13.

Fall Festival Volunteers Needed

Fall Festival runs smoothly, thanks to all the great volunteers! People can help set up, tear down, sell tickets, run kids games, beverage tent, run the train, and more! Sign up online at hnoj.org/fallfest

Deacon Dennis's 25th Anniversary of His Ordination, Sept. 6-7

Please join us in honoring Deacon Dennis Hanson as he celebrates the 25th anniversary of his Deaconate Ordination. He will be in the Gathering Space after all the Masses Sept. 6-7. We will have a special treat after all the Masses, not just at hospitality on Sunday morning. There will also be cards available for people to sign.

Gifts are not expected, but if you would like to give something, Deacon Dennis has asked that donations be directed to the fund for the building of the Stations of the Cross at HNOJ Cemetery. (Checks may be made to Holy Name of Jesus with Cemetery Stations in the memo).

Big Small Dinner, Sept. 23

Sometimes it's difficult to make connections at a church as large as Holy Name of Jesus. That is why we are hosting the Big Small Dinner on Tuesday, Sept. 23, from 5:30-7 pm. It's a chance to make small connections at a big church. This event is geared toward all new parishioners as well as those who have never attended before and want to get more connected.

We provide dinner and both nursery-age and school-age care as well as dinner for the kids. The Big Small Dinner is an opportunity to meet some of your fellow parishioners, come to know why Holy Name of Jesus is a special place, and get to know our parish priests.

There is no cost to attend, but registration is needed. Find out all the details at hnoj.org/bigsmalldinner. Please contact Tim Lyngdal with questions at tlyngdal@hnoj.org.

Scripture of the Week

*"My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts."
(Sirach 3:17)*

Our First Reading today from Sirach calls us to humility, "Humble yourself the more, the greater you are."

This theme is reflected by the reminder of the Exodus in today's Psalm where God is depicted as the Father of orphans and the defender of widows, the One who gives a home to the forsaken and He who leads the prisoners to prosperity.

Jesus will speak to this theme as He says, "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not recline at table in the place of honor... Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place." This is not about table manners. He is revealing the way of the Kingdom, the need to put ourselves in service to others. Jesus was, and is, the "Suffering Servant." It is the life He calls us to as well. Why? Because as our reading from Hebrews makes clear, we are approaching Mount Zion, "the city of the Living God." We've been invited, He is telling us how not to refuse that invitation.

Urgent Second Collection This Weekend

Archbishop Hebda is asking all parishes of the Archdiocese to join in a nationwide special appeal for humanitarian relief and pastoral support in Gaza.

"Our Church mourns the terrible suffering of Christians and other innocent victims of violence in Gaza and surrounding areas who are struggling to survive, protect their children, and live with dignity in dire conditions," said Archbishop Timothy P. Broglio, president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops.

Funds from this special appeal will support the efforts of Catholic Relief Services and the Catholic Near East Welfare Association. Both organizations are already well-established with the Catholic Church in the region to allow them to respond quickly and efficiently.

Please see envelopes in pews this weekend, or you can go online to hnoj.org/give and select Gaza aid.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

If you or someone you know needs a prayer shawl (ex. after a death of a loved one, before a surgery, during an illness, etc.) please contact Lee Ann Silver at 612-790-3114 or leeann.silver@yahoo.com, or stop by the welcome desk in the Gathering Space.

Needed: people to knit or crochet prayer shawls. Please contact Lee Ann if you can help this ministry with your talent.
