The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

By Father John Muir @LPI

When I was 22, I entered St. Peter's Basilica for the first time. It floored me. I could hardly take it in, its grandeur, majestic arches, vibrant colors, and the light that danced through its high windows. Somehow, amidst such splendor, I felt an overwhelming sense of belonging, as if I had finally come home.

Jesus reorients how we Catholics see sacred buildings. In today's Gospel he says, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up" (John 2:13-22). His riddle implies, shockingly, that his own body is now the fundamental dwelling place of God and humanity. The temple in Jerusalem has been superseded.

In our churches today – whether they mirror the basilica's grandeur or embrace humble simplicity – we experience architectural symbols of Christ's risen body. It is no accident we call them "churches": they make visible in brick-and-mortar Christ's body which is made up of the living stones we call Christians. Each church building, like St. John Lateran in Rome, or St. Peter's, or any other, is meant to be a vibrant sign of Christ's resurrected body. We should cherish and protect our churches as places where heaven touches earth, where we, as a community, are raised to the fullness of life in Christ.

The Chosen Bible Study for Teens, Nov 13

Teens are invited to come for snacks, fellowship, and to watch an episode of The Chosen, a story of the life of Jesus. Teens will then discuss at tables the Bible passages from the episode and end with prayer. This event is open to all senior high students! Please join us for our Thursday, Nov. 13, episode and discussion from 6:30-8:30 pm. Please RSVP to eedwards@hnoj.org.

Friday Night Alive, Nov. 14

Friday Night Alive (FNA) is a monthly gathering at HNOJ for middle schoolers to get to know each other through fun activities (open gym, team 4-square, gaga ball, fun crafts, and more!) and to grow in their relationship with Christ through prayer and listening to relatable talks given by our high school core team. We begin with a meal at 5:30 pm and have a blast until 8:30 pm. Join us on Friday, Nov. 14.

FNA nights are free of charge and open to all 5th through 8th-grade youth. This is a great time for middle schoolers to bring a friend! Walk-ins are welcome, but RSVPs are appreciated to help us get an accurate food count. To RSVP, please email Luke Klavins at lklavins@hnoj.org.

Luke 18 Retreat, Dec. 12-13

Luke 18 invites middle school youth into a relationship with Jesus Christ. Our Lord, Jesus Christ, is not a God who requires us to be perfect in order to be in a relationship with Him. He wants to love us in our fallen nature and He wants to invite us to become saints by relying on His strength. He understands us and carries our crosses with us throughout our entire lives. We have Jesus by our side, prayers of angels and saints, and friends to accompany us on the way.

Luke 18 takes place Friday, Dec. 12, 6:30-10 pm AND Dec. 13, 9 am-8:30 pm. Please note that this retreat does not have an overnight option.

More details and registration may be found at hnoj.org/luke18 and please contact Luke at lklavins@hnoj.org with any questions.

Evening of Renewal - Gratitude, Nov. 15

All parishioners are invited to an Evening of Renewal, sponsored and hosted by Jacob's Well Ultreya - TC Catholic Cursillo, on Saturday, Nov. 15, after the 5 pm Mass.

Our guest speaker is Fr. Chris Yanta, who will speak on the subject of gratitude. This will be a great preparation for Thanksgiving!

No cost to attend. Please bring a dish to pass for a potluck meal. We will have small group discussion following the talk and then end the night around 8 pm with a prayer circle.

Senior Event

Seniors 55+, please join us for the following events!

Advent or Christmas, Thursday, Nov. 20, 10:30 am-1 pm

Which do you really celebrate, Advent or Christmas? And is there a difference? Join us for a presentation by Spiritual Advisor and HNOJ parishioner, Don Prisby. Come hear the story with a difference. We will serve a pizza lunch for $10. Please sign up at the welcome desk.

Men's Night, Nov. 20

Men's Night is simple. We gather men from HNOJ together. We share an incredible meal (bacon is always present), we pray together, and we hear an inspiring message. More than that though, we just spend time refreshing ourselves so that we can be the very best version of ourselves.

If you care about someone in your life, you want to give them the very best. We know the very best we have to offer comes when we are feeling refreshed.

Come to the November Men's night on Thursday Nov. 20, from 6-8 pm. If you have never attended before just give a try. Two hours is all the investment this thing costs and the benefits are innumerable. Please RSVP if you can at hnoj.org/mensnight

Thanksgiving Day Mass, Nov. 27

Thanksgiving Day Mass will be on Thursday, Nov. 27, at 8 am. What a great way to start off your day of gratitude. The church and school offices will be closed on Nov. 27-28.

Science and Religion Speaker Series

HNOJ's Science and Religion series is back with more nights on AI, Cosmology, Scientism, and more. Join in the lively discussion on Tuesdays: Nov. 11, 18, and 25, from 6:30-8 pm at HNOJ.

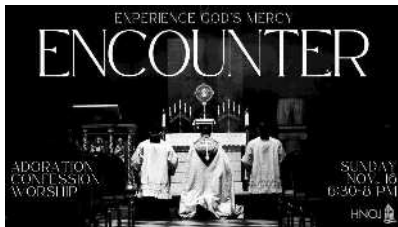

Nov. 11 - AI Revisited: A Catholic Discussion on AI a year later with Ian Sherman

Last year at Science and Religion Ian made a case for us not to be fearful of Artificial Intelligence. A lot has happened in the past year and the effects of AI are more and more felt in our daily experience. Is AI still under our control? Will it become self-aware? Ian is a talented presenter and this discussion is likely to be lively and important!

More information and RSVP at hnoj.org/science

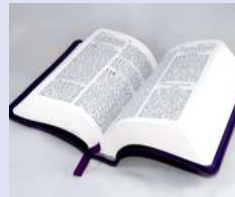

Encounter, Nov. 16

Encounter is back this year! We again are gathering for community prayer before the Eucharist in Adoration with music, silence, and the opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Our fall encounter will be on Sunday, Nov. 16, at 6:30 pm following the 5:30 pm Mass. We will have Eucharistic Adoration with praise and worship from 6:30-7:30 and then a reception in the Good Samaritan Center to follow.

Scripture of the Week

*"You are God's building."
(1 Corinthians 3:9c)*

Today we celebrate the dedication of a Papal Basilica, namely St. John Lateran. St. John Lateran is one of four Papal Basilicas in Rome (technically an Archbasilica, the only one in the world), the oldest public church in Rome, the official Cathedral of the Diocese of Rome, meaning it is the official seat (cathedra) for the Bishop of Rome (currently Pope Leo XIV).

Throughout the Church year, we celebrate a handful of places or "things" (The Chair of Peter is an example). Ironically, today's feast, while celebrating the Pope's Cathedral, the readings focus instead of God's establishment of His Church in people.

The St. John of this Basilica's name is both St. John the Baptist and, following reconstruction after an earthquake in the 9th century, also St. John the Evangelist. And, of course, all Catholic Churches honor Jesus - we are well reminded of this by our first reading from Ezekial. Also ironically, today's Gospel, from St. John, tells of Jesus declaring both zeal for the His Father's House, and telling the Jews, "destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up."

IOCP Second Collection, Nov. 15-16

If you and your family have been blessed, please consider sharing those blessings with the poor and homeless among us. After all, as Jesus says in that passage from Matthew: "...whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me."

Holy Name of Jesus will take up a second collection for Interfaith Outreach next weekend, on Nov. 15-16, to support their efforts for their annual Sleep Out. Please write checks out to Holy Name of Jesus with IOCP in the memo. You can go to hnoj.org/interfaith2ndcollection to learn more.

In Our Parish and Our Community

School Open House, Nov. 16

Come and check out our school open house on Sunday, Nov. 16, from 12-3 pm. Families will have the opportunity to tour the school, meet some teachers, and learn about our preschool - 6th grade programs for the 2026- 2027 school year!

Thanksgiving Bake Sale, Nov. 15-16

You'll need some baked goods and snacks to enjoy during the upcoming holiday. The whole family is coming hungry! Stop by our bake sale and stock up on delicious treats for the entire holiday season. Many items freeze well for enjoyment in weeks to come, too.

The KC Auxiliary has planned this event to raise funds for the IOCP food shelf. Families who shop at the food shelf are getting ready to celebrate Thanksgiving, too, so the need is great at this time of year. Donations of baked goods for the bake sale are also welcome if you have a specialty you would like to share. Cost is a free-will donation - we can only accept cash or check written out to KC Ladies Auxiliary.

Make a family happy this holiday season and get Thanksgiving goodies too! Questions? Contact Karen Karn at kekarn@comcast.net or 612-709-8412.

Vatican Unveiled

If you are interested in volunteering for an amazing exhibit of Vatican artifacts coming to the Mall of America in January, and if you have completed Virtus Training in the past three years, please reach out to Fr. Wratkowski! They are looking for volunteers to assist.

Matching Grant Turkey BINGO, Nov. 16

Join in an afternoon of fun, food, and fantastic prizes, on Sunday, Nov. 16, at 1 pm, at Ss. Peter and Paul Parish in Loretto! A $10 admission includes one bingo card good for 20 games, and a delicious luncheon of turkey sandwiches, and more. This event is sponsored by Catholic United Financial. Extra bingo cards are available: 3 for $1.00. Prizes include cash, gift cards, and turkeys (of course). We will have door prizes and drawings throughout the event!

Special bike drawing for kids! All children 12 and under attending will be entered to win a free boys' or girls' bike!

Bring your friends, bring your family, and bring your Bingo spirit!

Treats with Santa, Dec. 6

Please save the date and plan to join us for our HNOJ School Santa event on Saturday, Dec. 6, from 9-11:30 am. Your family will have a chance to visit with Santa and Mrs. Claus, share Christmas wishes, get a family photo, and enjoy treats. We will also be collecting toy donations for Toys for Tots, and we will have a PaperPie Book Fair if you are looking for some great Christmas gifts! More information and registration for this free event will be coming soon!

Sound Board Volunteers Needed

Interested in staying behind-the-scenes during Mass while helping everyone up front sound good? HNOJ is looking for additional volunteer sound board technicians to join the Mass schedule this fall. It only takes a minute of trying to listen when a microphone isn't turned on to understand how critical this role can be to everyone's ability to stay engaged at Mass! Training will be provided. Email our Director of Sacred Music, Kraig Windschitl, at kwindschitl@hnoj.org for more information.

Book of Remembrance

During the month of November, we are called to remember and pray for those who have passed away. One of the ways that we do this is by listing their names in the Book of the Names of the Dead. Holy Name of Jesus' Book of the Names of the Dead can be found on the Gathering Space stand by the church doors. Please add your loved ones' names to the book and they will be prayed for in a special way during the month of November.

Community Memorial Service, Nov. 20

All are invited to the Candlelight Memorial Service honoring our deceased loved ones on Thursday, Nov. 20, at 6 pm, at St. Philip the Deacon Lutheran Church in Plymouth. This service, presented by the West Suburban Grief Coalition, helps to bring comfort, hope, and healing to attendees who have experienced the death of a loved one.

Service begins at 6 pm, but please arrive between 5:30-5:45 pm to register and be given a memorial candle that you may take home following the service.

There will be an optional catered dinner following the service, at the cost of $17 per person. Please reserve your dinner in advance by calling 612-220-8071.
