What We See in the Desert

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman @LPI

I've always wanted to see a real desert.

I know all about frigid, snowy winters and warm, wet summers. I grew up on rich soil that yields lush vegetation and bountiful harvests.
But I've never experienced a desert, not in my own country or abroad, and I'm curious.

I know there must be something magical about the desert for it to feature so heavily in Scripture, for it to provide a backdrop to so many crucial moments of salvation history. The Israelites following the cloud, the temptation of Christ, the voice crying out:
"Prepare the way for the Lord."

Why do these moments have to happen in a desert? Why do they make so much less sense in a tropical rainforest or a verdant forest?

I think it's because the desert doesn't have anything to offer us, at first glance.
No one longs for the physical sensation of a dry heat and a beating sun. But the vast emptiness and the almost mystical harshness – even if we don't desire and delight in it, this is a setting that we understand, somehow, intrinsically. We know it deep within our soul. God is there.

We go to Mass. We go to Confession. We pray. We read Scripture. In doing all these things, again and again, we go out to the desert.

Why? What are we expecting to see?

If we expect to be entertained, we will be disappointed. If we expect reassurance, we will be disappointed. If we expect to feel pleasant and safe and sheltered, we will be disappointed.

The desert is there to challenge us. The desert is there to show us who we are,
and who we can be.

So go.

Pilgrimage to Italy 2026 - More Spots Added!

A second bus has been added in our pilgrimage to Italy, so we have opened up more spots. Join Fr. Wratkowski and other parishioners on a pilgrimage to Italy, with stops including Florence, Siena, Assisi, and Rome.

The dates of the pilgrimage are Oct. 26 - Nov. 6, 2026. All details at hnoj.org/pilgrimage

Scripture of the Week

"Be strong, fear not! Here is your God" (Isaiah 35:4)

Last week we heard John calling us to prepare, to repent and shape up. This week begins with a beautiful vision from Isaiah that speaks of beauty, restoration, and deliverance.

James, in our Second Reading, encourages us to be patient for what is to come. And Jesus, in the Gospel, tells us John is the messenger promised in the prophecies of old who would prepare the way for the one to come. Good news, indeed, for the time is upon us.

The gift that is Advent continues to invite us to prepare, to make an internal conversion filled with the joy of the Lord. The joy that Jesus Himself speaks of in John 15:11 - "I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete."

Weekly reflections by parishioner Jon Hickman

Winter Weekend Family Retreat, Feb. 6-8

Great Christmas gift idea! Give your family an opportunity to get away on retreat together!

Join Fr. Wratkowski and other families from HNOJ at our annual Winter Weekend at Bugbee Hive Resort, just over an hour away in Paynesville, MN, on the shores of Lake Koronis. Indoor pool and hot tub, extra large play set, snowshoeing and skiing trails, and plenty of fun during free time for the whole family.

New this year, VBS style programming for the younger kids and more advanced activities for the older elementary aged kiddos. Adults get their own retreat time each morning and then during men's and women's socials each evening. Mass, Confession, and Adoration for all!

Many of our families call this the highlight of their winter. An amazing weekend with family, faith, and new friends from HNOJ.

Give a great gift to your family this year by signing up for the HNOJ Winter Weekend.

For more information or to register visit www.hnoj.org/winterweekend or email Chris Kostelc at ckostelc@hnoj.org.

In Our Parish and Our Community

Blankets Needed for Sharing and Caring Hands

Dear Friends at Holy Name of Jesus,
The weather is turning cold and every day I meet someone who is in need of a blanket to help them keep warm. Could you spare a blanket or quilt? It would be greatly appreciated. They do not have to be new; used blankets are fine. They just need to be clean. Many thanks for your continued support of Sharing and Caring Hands. Please bring them to HNOJ and parishioner Teresa Walker will take them to Sharing and Caring Hands.

Peace and God Bless!
Teresa Walker on behalf of Mary Jo Copeland, Founder of Sharing and Caring Hands

Your generosity today is not just a donation – it's a way of thanking them for their lifelong service. Please give to the Retirement Fund for Religious.
